City of Athens' Annual Year-in-Review for Fiscal Year 2020 Released

ATHENS, TENNESSEE – October 1st, 2020 - The City of Athens has officially released its annual year-in-review for the 2020 fiscal year (July 1, 2019 to June 30, 2020). This year marks the third year the City has released an infographic detailing information organization-wide of its service delivery to the citizens of Athens.

As City Manager C. Seth Sumner states in his introductory letter, "A few years ago, I charged my staff with celebrating the remarkable stories of their service to our community, to identify and highlight the incredible difference that Team Athens is making here in our hometown. From that challenge, an infographic was developed and is now delivered annually to our fellow citizens. I am pleased to share the latest Annual Year-in-Review infographic for the Fiscal Year ending June 30, 2020 with you. Within these pages you will see the culmination of the hard work my staff has accomplished this past year and the success stories that our community can share together since last summer."

The annual publication is a collaborative project produced by the city's Public Relations Team headed by James A. Gallup, Assistant to the City Manager. Its content features contributions from city staff, the McMinn County Economic Development Authority, and Main Street Athens. The infographic can be viewed digitally on the City of Athens web page at www.cityofathenstn.com and hard copies are available at City Hall by request. To request a hard copy, please email the City of Athens Public Relations Team at public_relations@athenstn.gov.

The City of Athen is a full-service municipality nestled in the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains and has garnered a reputation as the "Friendly City".
