This event will be hosted at Market Park on March 31 from 5-8pm. Participants are encouraged to come grab dinner from a food truck and explore the big trucks and machines that the City of Athens operates. All interested food trucks should return a completed application to the Parks and Recreation Department, limit to the first 6 food trucks.

“We held our first food truck night with such success this fall, and we have been super excited to schedule another. We had a great crowd and the food trucks sold out, so it was a win for all of us,” said Athens Parks and Recreation Program Coordinator Brianna Baker.
