Chief of Police Report
April 25, 2022

Report:

The police department continues to receive reports from residents who have experienced identity fraud and other forms of fraud. We recommend not responding to email inquiries where personal information is requested and to carefully research businesses that appear legitimate before conducting business with such entities. See the www.IC3.gov website if you've experienced business fraud. Reporting the information to the FBI as soon as possible is the best course of action.
