Attention: Guests in Overnight Shelter

It has been reported that prescription and non-prescription drugs are being shared amongst guests in the overnight shelter. This behavior is a violation of the rules and individuals believed to be engaging in this behavior will be asked to leave the shelter.

If you are in need of medication or medical/psychiatric treatment please see staff so that we can assist you.

Drug sharing of any kind is not only prohibited but it is also dangerous.

Thank you for your attention to this matter and in making sure we keep the Center a safe place for all.

Sincerely,

Julia Orlando
Center Director
