CITY HIGHLIGHTS

A message from City Manager Marcella Marlowe, Ph.D.

Stay informed with monthly town hall meetings

Happy Spring, San Marino! We are almost one-third of the way through the year and our public engagement efforts are off to a good start. Hopefully, you all know by now that the City is holding MONTHLY TOWN HALL MEETINGS on the first Monday of every month at 6 p.m. for one hour in the Barth Room at the Crowell Public Library. (Some topics are replicated later in the month at the Chinese Club, with translation into Mandarin available.)

Each month focuses on a different topic and gives us a chance to connect with you and vice versa. In January, Mayor Steven Huang delivered a State of the City address. In February, we asked for community feedback on the possible priority initiatives

Working together to decrease crime in the community

The San Marino Police Department has begun its Volunteer Program. We are actively seeking members of the community to be part of the San Marino Police Department team. Volunteers will be assigned to assist with detectives, records and at the front desk. Those volunteers with special skills will be asked to help with social media, organizing events and assisting with training or investigations. All that is required is a few hours of your time and a lot of your energy.

Each applicant will need to complete a limited background screening and a record check. Once that is successfully completed, applicants will be matched with the most fitting opportunities available in the Department. Please contact Courtney Martin at (626) 300-0780 or cmartin@CityofSanMarino.org for more information.

We are continuing to seek out community members to participate in our Neighborhood Watch Program. Neighborhood Watch is a self-help crime prevention program operated by the members of our community. The purpose of the program is to create an alert

Help conserve water throughout the City

On February 27, 2017, the State Water Resources Control Board, through an emergency action, adopted California Code of Regulations 23 Section 864, which included most of the previous regulations related to water conservation. The regulation expired on November 24, 2017.

Early last year, the Water Board proposed permanent regulations that were similar to the ones below, however, those regulations ultimately were not adopted. The latest statewide action to encourage water conservation is AB 1668/SB 606, which became effective January 1, 2019 and set goals for water suppliers rather than individuals.

Specific Citywide watering restrictions in San Marino shall continue to be enforced, and ongoing public outreach for the additional water conservation recommendations and best management practices shall be monitored in an effort to encourage residential and business owners to make water conservation a way of life.

Residents and business owners are encouraged to adjust their irrigation schedules to reflect the following schedule:

neighborhood by teaching simple crime prevention measures and providing both specific and general information regarding crime trends in the community. Volunteers are needed to serve as Block Captains or to simply participate in the program within your neighborhood.

Corporal Brian Wong and Officer Kenric Wu are assigned to the Neighborhood Watch program, and they welcome your input and suggestions. They encourage Neighborhood Watch meetings and enjoy attending to provide needed training or an update of crime trends in our city. If you are interested in forming a Neighborhood Watch group or would like information regarding the program, please send an email to NeighborhoodWatch@smpd.us.

We look forward to meeting new volunteers and Neighborhood Watch members. These two programs provide an outstanding opportunity to help keep our community safe and to contribute to what makes San Marino such a special place. ■

A message from Fire Chief Mario Rueda

Is your family ready for the next power outage?

Recently, representatives from the San Marino Fire Department attended a "Power Talk Session" conducted by Southern California Edison (SCE). This presentation, and the weather that Southern California experienced this winter, provided a glimpse of the potential disruption to normal life that can be created by power outages. SCE discussed a number of public safety programs, including:

- SCE's Wildfire Mitigation Program
- Power Safety Power Shutdown (PSPS) Protocol
- PSPS Notification
- Outage Notifications
- An Outage Overview/ Simulation
- SCE's Grid Modernization

The Fire Department reminds residents that severe weather conditions can result in electrical service interruptions. Power outages occur as a result of wires being downed due to wind and falling trees. Residents should take steps now to be prepared in their homes and businesses.

If you see a downed power line or dangling wire – even if it appears not to be live – don't touch or approach it or anything that is in contact with it, and call 911 immediately.

The Fire Department recommends getting ready for potential outages by taking the following measures:

- Place flashlights in handy locations, such as near telephones.
- Install surge protectors to help safeguard valuable electronic equipment such as computers and home entertainment systems.
- Know where to find each utility box (electricity, water and gas) and how to turn them off. Keep the proper tools to do so handy.
- Always back up important work and files on your computer.
- If you have an automatic garage door or gate, learn how to open it manually (without power).
- Consider keeping at least one car at least half full with fuel. Gas stations need electricity to pump gas and will be shut down during an outage. Please note that stockpiling gasoline is not recommended. Gasoline is a hazardous, combustible substance. Portable gasoline generators should never be used inside homes, garages, office buildings or other enclosed spaces.
- Make a safety preparedness plan for your family that includes a list and location of the above items. Be prepared to meet the special needs of infants and elderly or disabled family members. Also plan how you will care for any pets.

For additional public safety information, please visit the San Marino Fire Department website at www.CityofSanMarino.org/144/Fire-Department. ■

Follow current City water usage requirements and recommendations

- Spring/Summer Schedule, April 1 through October 31, allows for residential and commercial properties to water a maximum of three days a week for residential and commercial properties (see days of the week below).
- Winter Schedule, November 1 through March 31, allows for residential and commercial properties to water a maximum of two days a week.

The days of the week selected for watering are at the discretion of the property owner based on the allowable days for the respective address.

The current City restriction for watering residential and commercial properties that is being enforced is:

- All leaks must be fixed within 72 hours.

Additional water conservation recommendations and best management practices that are being monitored for continued water conservation efforts include:

- Limits on Watering Hours – Watering or irrigating of lawn, landscape or other vegetated area with potable water is prohibited between the hours of 9 a.m. and 5 p.m. (PST) on any day, except by use of a handheld bucket or similar container, a handheld hose equipped with a positive self-closing water shutoff nozzle or device, or for very short periods of time for the express purpose of adjusting or repairing an irrigation system.
- Limits on Watering Days – Watering or irrigating of lawn, landscape or other vegetated area with potable water shall be limited to either three days per week or two days per week based on the time of year and in accordance with the following schedule: properties with odd numbered addresses may do so on Tuesdays, Fridays and Sundays, and properties with even numbered addresses may do so on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays. Wednesday is a Citywide "No Watering" day. Watering or irrigating of lawn, landscape or other vegetated area with potable water outside of this schedule shall be monitored.
- Limits on Watering Duration – Watering or irrigating of lawn, landscape or other vegetated area with potable water using a landscape irrigation system or a watering device that is not continuously attended is limited to no more than 15 minutes of watering per day per station. This subsection does not apply to landscape irrigation systems that exclusively use very low flow drip type irrigation systems when no emitter produces more than two gallons of water per hour and weather-based controllers or stream rotor sprinklers that meet a 70 percent efficiency standard. Low-flow irrigation systems (including drip irrigation and micro spray) that emit less than two gallons per hour are exempt from day of week and time limitations.
- Do not allow water to run in such a manner so as to result in runoff overflowing the walkway on private property or the sidewalk on public property.
- Avoid hosing off sidewalks, driveways and other hardscape areas.
- Do not wash cars with hoses not equipped with a shut-off nozzle.
- Avoid use of fountains that do not recirculate the water.
- Do not water lawns or landscape within 48 hours of measurable rainfall. ■

If you haven't attended a Town Hall meeting yet, come on out! We announce the topic on our website and in our Weekly Briefing email that goes out from my office on Thursdays to anyone who has signed up.
