IN RE: TEMPORARY ASSIGNMENT OF :
MAGISTERIAL DISTRICT JUDGES :
TO COVER MATTERS ARISING :
IN DISTRICT COURT 18-3-01 :
: 857 CD 2023

ORDER

AND NOW, October 17, 2023, the reestablishment of the Magisterial Districts of the 18th Judicial District will eliminate Magisterial District 18-3-01 effective January 1, 2024. The District will no longer be hearing cases as of December 15, 2023 and all computers will be off line at the office as of December 18, 2023. Therefore, pursuant to the provisions of the Pennsylvania Rules of Conduct, Office Standards and Civil Procedures for Magisterial District Judges, Rule 112(B)(1)(c), effective for normal business hours commencing December 15, 2023 and continuing through normal business hours on December 31, 2023, Magisterial District Judge Timothy Schill is temporarily assigned to handle all cases arising from Clarion Borough, Clarion Township, and Strattanville Borough, Magisterial District Judge Jarah Heeter is assigned to handle all cases arising from Paint Township, and Magisterial District Judge Jeffrey Miller is assigned to handle all cases arising from Monroe Township.

Any Magisterial District Judge assigned for on-call purposes for hours other than regular hours from December 15, 2023 to December 31, 2023 shall continue to handle matters that arise consistent with the on-call provisions set forth by state and local rules.

Effective December 1, 2023, any new filing as of that date for Clarion Borough, Clarion Township and Strattanville Borough shall be done in the office of Magisterial District Judge Timothy Schill (District 18-3-02), any new filing for Paint Township shall be done in the office of Magisterial District Judge Jarah Heeter (District 18-3-03), and any new filing for Monroe Township shall be done in the office of Magisterial District Judge Jeffrey Miller (District 18-3-04).

Effective December 1, 2023, ePayments will be temporarily unavailable for cases in District Court 18-3-01. The ability to make ePayments for cases in District Court 18-3-01 will resume following realignment and no later than December 18, 2023.

Effective December 15, 2023, the office of District Judge Timothy Schill, District 18-3-02, shall be located at 22 N. 6th Avenue, Suite B, Clarion, PA 16214. Preliminary Hearings for all Magisterial District courts in Clarion County shall continue to be conducted at Central Court, 309 Amsler Avenue, Suite 1, Shipperville, PA, 16254.

BY THE COURT,

P.J.
