LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR OF LEISURE SERVICES

Richard Brown

Welcome to Leisure Services' Clive Connected publication, a catalog of our current program offerings and news about what Parks, Recreation, and the Library will be up to in the coming months.

The Spring/Summer issue is our largest catalog of offerings as the Aquatic Center opens for the season and kids enjoy their summer vacation. You will notice some changes to our book including an update to the Aquatic Section to increase clarity, extended camp offerings, and new offerings at the Harbach Center.

The Harbach Center has been operating for a year with many successful programs, a comfortable place to gather, and a cozy neighborhood library. In January of 2024, we opened the Center's new gaming lounge with an Xbox One X, Nintendo Switch and Playstation 5. Be sure to stop by during open hours to see our new space!

2024 will continue to be a big year for Leisure Services with groundbreaking at Greenbelt Landing, park and trail reconstruction, and new amenities. While we are making improvements, please stay tuned to City communications, newsletters, and social media to keep up-to-date on projects and related closures.

We look forward to seeing you during our favorite season!

Volunteer Opportunities / Events

► Get Involved with the Greenbelt Goats

Sundays
2:00 – 6:00 p.m.

We need some help caring for our famous Greenbelt Goats / Sheep. These checkup opportunities are available for interested persons, families, or groups. Duties range from counting the goats and sheep, checking that the fence perimeter is free of gaps to ensure that no animals have escaped, checking water supply, and other general help. When signing up to volunteer, more information and instructions will be sent to you the week of your volunteering day. For more information, contact Jeff at jlucas@cityofclive.com or call (515) 867-5127.

► Trash Bash / Earth Day

Friday, April 26
1:00 – 3:00 p.m. Cleanup throughout the City

This community clean-up event is held throughout Clive and focuses on making Clive parks and trail areas “Distinct By Nature.” We ask that each individual volunteer register themselves due to a waiver that is included and required at the end of the online registration process, and to get an accurate count of volunteers. An informational email will be sent to each volunteer with more specific logistical information one week prior to the Trash Bash. For more information, contact Jeff at jlucas@cityofclive.com or call (515) 867-5127.

► Volunteering at Clive Festival

Friday, July 19 – Saturday, July 20
5:30 – 11:00 p.m.

Volunteers are needed for a variety of positions and shifts at Clive Festival. Most volunteer positions help with the beverage tent and ID stations, but other positions are also needed. We’d love to have you — more detailed questions are available during the registration process. For more information, contact Jeff at jlucas@cityofclive.com or call (515) 867-5127.

Kids for Art in Clive
Artwork on display August 1 – October 31

Every year during the Clive Festival, the City of Clive and NCMIC sponsor an art exhibit for students of the Des Moines metro area schools. Local teachers select student artwork to submit for adjudication and display. All students who are selected are celebrated at a reception during Clive Fest. We are proud to display the artwork at the library. For more information, contact Patty at pnapier@cityofclive.com.

► Art Along the Trail

Art Along the Trail is a temporary outdoor exhibit, displayed along Clive's landmark feature, the Greenbelt Park and Trail system, from May through October each year. The art pieces will be displayed in highly visible sites along the Greenbelt. Works are selected by an Art Along the Trail Selection Panel comprised of two members of the City's Park Board, two members of the Public Art Commission, one City council member, one Clive resident or Clive business owner representative from the Chamber of Commerce, and one member of the local art community.

The Clive Public Art Program was established by the City Council in December 2007. The Public Arts Advisory Commission was established at that time to oversee the operations of the public art program. As part of the City's commitment to enhance the 'Distinct by Nature' character of Clive with the addition of art in public places, the City Council adopted direct appropriation funding for public art. Since approval of the Master Plan, the City has awarded three commissions to artists to create artwork. The Art Along the Trail exhibition will continue the City's efforts to promote aesthetic excellence and enhance the artistic vitality of Clive.

The selection committee meets in mid-December of 2023 to choose the pieces from the available applications for the 2024 season.

Park and Trail Projects

Greenbelt Landing

The Greenbelt Landing Project is a plan for enhancing the 14.89 acres just outside the Aquatic Center. This project will bring new recreational opportunities, improve water quality, and help maintain wildlife habitat.

Plans for the updated space include enhancements for community gathering, nature exploration, exercise and engagement, stormwater treatment with a wetland of native plants, ADA-accessible boardwalk and access to Walnut Creek, enhanced and restored streambanks, new staging area, and a Special Events Building upgrade.

Linnan Redesign

Linnan Park and the Harbach Center will be getting an upgrade! Investigating the area and consulting with firms and citizens, we have identified amenities that would be beneficial for the 86th street corridor. Plans include rearrangement of greenspace, more parking, and a splash pad. Construction is slated for spring 2025.

Cirksena Park

Clive's newest park, Cirksena Park, was named in honor of former Mayor Scott Cirksena. The park is in northwest Clive and will feature a walking path, natural play areas and natural ground water filtration systems. Construction began in late summer 2023 with plans for completion in spring of 2024.

Indian Hills Trail

In early fall 2019, the City of Clive brought together a team of multiple government and nonprofit organizations, to analyze current conditions and design a framework for the long-term improvement of Indian Hills Woods. The project includes stabilizing streambanks, improving aquatic and riparian habitat, and increasing public interaction within this important natural corridor.

As the City evolves its perspective to a broader system approach to land, vegetation, and stormwater management, the Indian Hills Woods represents a great opportunity to put into practice an integrated approach for a long-term sustainable solution to these challenges.

Stonegate Playground

On August 17, 2023 the playground at Stonegate Park was sadly destroyed by arson. While the acts of that day are unfortunate and rendered the playground unusable for the remainder of the summer, we are excited to rebuild the playground better than ever. City staff will work with the neighborhood to select a final playground concept plan, and ultimately rebuild for summer 2024.

Little Walnut Creek Trail and Creek Work

In early March, the City of Waukee will start construction on a new sanitary sewer near the north bank of Little Walnut Creek. The project will affect neighborhoods, trails, and natural areas near the creek in Waukee, Clive, and Urbandale. All three cities are working together to lessen disruptions caused by the construction and prepare for future improvements, including streambank stabilization, vegetation restoration, trail expansion, and widening Alice's Road.

These improvements will take time but will bring new amenities, utility services, and street enhancements. While the project will necessitate trail closures and tree removal, Clive, Waukee and Urbandale are committed to preservation and tree replacement.

Follow these projects at the Leisure Services project page at www.cityofclive.com/lspjrojects or by scanning the QR code below.

Greenbelt Goats

The Clive Greenbelt Goats were introduced to the City in late 2019 and are a special herd helping us manage invasive plant species, like bush honeysuckle and garlic mustard along the Greenbelt Park and trail system. By grazing on non-native understory plants, the goats are helping native plants have a chance to grow back more quickly and overtake invasive species like bush honeysuckle, and they especially love the garlic mustard!

When the goats graze on forest understory plants, native plants have a chance to grow back quickly and overtake the invasive species. Clearing out aggressive invasive plants is critical to maintaining a healthy Greenbelt that supports the trees, shrubs, grasses, flowers, and wildlife we love!

During warmer weather the herd is moved along the Greenbelt to work. You can use the map on our website to see where the herd is grazing. During these times the goats are often deep in the foliage, away from the path, working hard at clearing the area and may not come to the fence.

When visiting, please do not feed the goats anything from home! Feed can be purchased at the machines at City Hall. Feeding the herd food that isn't in their diet regime, even food they really like, can be dangerous for them.

Want to support the Greenbelt Goats? Merchandise purchased goes to supporting the care, feeding and housing for the goats. You can purchase Greenbelt Goat merchandise at the Clive Public Library main branch during regular open hours.

You can also work with the Greenbelt Goats! Find out more about volunteering by contacting Jeff Lucas, Recreation Manager, at (515) 867-5127 or jlucas@cityofclive.com.

How does the program work? Sign up at the library front desk. Upon sign up, supporting adults will receive a reading folder to track the number of books they and others read to the participating child. For each 100 books, participants are encouraged to visit the library to celebrate with stickers. Once certain milestones have been reached, the library rewards those accomplishments with prizes. When participants have read 1,000 books before kindergarten, they have successfully completed the program.

Unsure of What Level to Choose?
To decide which level is best, visit our Swimming Lesson page on our website <https://tinyurl.com/2p837jr9> and click the FAQ question, "How do I know which swimming level to enroll in?"

► Morning Group Lessons

The Clive swim lesson program is a life-long skill development program. Swimmers progress onto the next level when they have developed the required skill(s) and coordination. It is common for swimmers to repeat the same level before advancing onto the next level. We recommend registering swimmers for the same level at least twice before progressing. Constant practice outside of classes will significantly increase the swimmer’s chance to pass.
