Type of incident: Assault with a deadly weapon, Felon in possession of a firearm and ammunition Location: Corcoran, CA
Victim: Confidential Age: 40 City: Corcoran, CA
Suspect: Fernando Parra Age: 39 Arrested: Yes City: Hanford

On Saturday, May 13, 2023, at approximately 7:55 PM, Corcoran Police Officers responded to the 1000 Block of James Avenue for reports of shots fired. Through investigation it was learned that Fernando Parra had fired a handgun at a 40-year-old victim. The victim was not struck. Fernando was found to be a Felon and is prohibited from owning/possessing firearms and ammunition.

Corcoran Detectives began investigating this case and authored an arrest warrant for Fernando. The warrant was signed by a judge for Fernando being in violation of assault with a deadly weapon and being a felon in possession of a firearm and ammunition.

On Friday, May 26, 2023, at approximately 9:30 AM, Fernando was located at a residence in the 800 Block of Silverado Street in the City of Hanford. Corcoran Police, Hanford Police, and members of the CA Fugitive Apprehension Team attempted to get Fernando to come out and surrender; however, these attempts were unsuccessful. Corcoran Detectives authored a search warrant for the residence and the Central Valley Regional SWAT Team (CVRST) was activated. CVRST served the search warrant and were able to take Fernando into custody.

During a search of the residence, Corcoran Detectives located a pistol believed to be utilized in this crime. Additionally, Detectives located an AR15 style rifle, high-capacity magazine, and ammunition.

Fernando was booked into the Kings County Jail where he is being held on no bail.
