Definition:

Feather Sign means a lightweight, portable sign mounted along one (1) edge on a single, vertical, flexible pole the physical structure of which may resemble a sail, bow, or teardrop.

Applicant understands that:

- Feather Signs are temporary
- Feather Signs shall not obstruct the visibility of vehicles or pedestrians and shall be located at least five (5) feet from the property or right-of-way line.
- Feather Signs shall not be taller than ten (10) feet in height.
- The number of permissible signs is calculated at one (1) sign per 25' of the parcel's public street frontage. The sign(s) may be installed anywhere consistent with Section 27-247(a).
- Feather Sign(s) may be permitted no more than four (4) occasions per parcel per calendar year.
- Permit will expire 30 days after installation as listed on page 2.
- Feather Signs shall be maintained in good repair and in a safe, neat and clean condition.
- The fee for the application is $25.00.

Fill in the blanks below:

_____ # of Feather Sign(s) _____ Height of Feather Sign(s)

_____ Public Street Frontage of Parcel (measured in feet)
