

ZOOM access is offered to the public as an electronic means to promote citizen access to the courts and the judicial process. The following conditions apply to any user:

1. Remote Access is offered as a courtesy and there is no guarantee of functionality;
2. Recording, re-broadcasting or distribution of the audio-content is prohibited and violations may be enforced by the Court's contempt authority;
3. The Court, in its discretion, determines who may speak or visually appear; requests to do so may be brought to the Court's attention by the chat device or raised hand emoji.
