ENVIROMENTAL PLANNING SERVICES

Brownfield Site Assessment Project

Questions received As of 11/14/22

1. Does the City of Dunkirk have a specific fair share objective/goal (i.e., percentage of total award) for combined MBE/WBE procurement of equipment, supplies and services? If so, is there a separate breakdown goal for MBE and for WBE? No specific numbers or goals.
2. Based on the City of Dunkirk's Cooperative Agreement with USEPA, will Davis-Bacon Act prevailing wage requirements apply to services that involve construction, repair, or alterations within the meaning of the Davis-Bacon Act? I think that says it all with D-B. Assessment activities generally do not involve construction, alteration, and repair within the meaning of the Davis-Bacon Act. However, the recipient must contact the EPA Project Officer if there are unique circumstances (e.g., removal of an underground storage tank or another activity.
3. Will applicable subcontractor services and equipment purchased/rented for the Brownfield Site Assessments and Redevelopment Planning project be subject to Sales Tax? I can't answer that. Assume yes. Please contact NY State Dept of Taxation & Finance.
4. Did the City of Dunkirk have assistance from an engineering/consulting firm to prepare the EPA Brownfield Assessment Grant application? If so, what was the name of the firm? The City received some advice on how to prepare the BAG package during a BOA marketing grant, but the City prepared the application and submitted it.
5. If an engineering/consulting firm assisted with the grant application were they paid for these services? If so, how much? No services were paid either by the City or through a grant for preparation of the application. No, the City prepared the cooperative work plan and worked exclusively with the EPA.
6. Did the City of Dunkirk have assistance from an engineering/consulting firm to prepare the Cooperative Agreement Work Plan for the EPA Brownfield Assessment Grant project? NO If so, what was the name of the firm? N/A
