

LABORATORY TECHNICIAN

This is a technical laboratory position involving responsibility for performing all tests required for analysis of water and wastewater for sanitary reasons. Duties include the collection of samples to perform analysis, which includes physical, chemical, bacteriological and microscopic examinations. Requires the operation of laboratory equipment and instruments and ability to follow technically prescribed methods in performance of scientific investigations. One must be able to interpret reports and maintain records.

This is a Civil Service competitive position and one must meet the required qualifications.

A competitive wage and comprehensive benefit package are provided.

For additional information contact Human Resources at 716-366-9872 or 716-366-9871