EAST DUNDEE POLICE INVESTIGATE ARMED ROBBERY

On June 15, 2021, at approximately 2:35 a.m., East Dundee Police were dispatched to the 300 block of River Haven Court for an armed robbery (21-1622). Upon arrival, Officers located four victims of the robbery in the area. The police investigation has revealed that the victims, who are not residents of East Dundee, were lured to a home and once inside, were robbed of personal belongings at gunpoint and a vehicle was stolen. Statements by the victims suggest that this was an isolated incident targeting these specific victims.

The East Dundee Police Department will be canvassing the neighborhoods seeking witness information and possible security camera footage.

Police are continuing their investigation. The East Dundee Police have increased patrols in the area but have no information that would suggest any danger to residents at this time. Anyone with information regarding this incident is asked to contact the East Dundee Police Department at 847-428-8784.
