*****

- (e) A committee, consisting of the city manager or designee, the director of public safety or a manager in the public safety department, and the building official or economic development manager or a manager in the building department or other designee in the economic development department, shall approve or deny the permit application within 90 days of receipt of the completed application and fees. The processing time may be extended upon written notice by the city for good cause, and any failure to meet the required processing time shall not result in the automatic grant of an approved application. Any denial must be in writing and must state the reason(s) for denial. Any final denial of a permit application may be appealed within 21 days of the denial, to a hearing officer, provided that the pendency of an appeal shall not stay or extend the expiration of any permit application. The city has no obligation to process or approve any incomplete permit application; and any times provided under this article shall not begin to run until the city receives a complete permit application, as determined by the committee. A determination of a complete permit application shall not prohibit the city from requiring supplemental information.
