EGG HARBOR TOWNSHIP ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

MINUTES OF MEETING

February 17, 2022

A meeting of the Egg Harbor Township Economic Development Commission was held at noon at the Municipal Offices and via Zoom on February 17, 2022. In attendance were Cherie Burgan, Paul Chan, Kenneth Steinberg, William Elliott, Cynthia Balles, Andrew Parker, Jr., and Leo Schoffer. All but Chan and Schoffer attended via Zoom. Andrew Parker, III and Wayne Schloss had excused absences. Also in attendance was Lisa March from the pubic via Zoom.

Cherie chaired the meeting.

a) The Sunshine notice was read; and
b) Reorganization. Cherie was unanimously reappointed Chairman and all previous officers, committees, and subcommittees were reaffirmed, unanimously.

Old Business:

a) West Atlantic City: Nothing new.
b) National Aviation Research Park: Nothing new.
c) Exit 36: Nothing new.
d) Atlantic County Economic Alliance: Cherie showed the proposed ACEA website and how EHT properties would be showcased.

New Business:

a) Leo mentioned some new activity at the airport: Darin Matik and Max Slusher of ACEA met the Governor's Chief of Staff to promote 2 areas at the AC Airport. One area was for a maintenance facility. There will also be an RFP for 400 acres at the airport for air cargo.

b) Lisa March asked about the status of cannabis licenses. Leo explained that the Township Committee, not the EDC, was in control of cannabis zoning, and the State was in charge of awarding licenses (growing and dispensary).

c) Congratulations to Cherie for completing her FBI School Executive Leadership training!

d) Chan said he would contact Wayne Schloss to "initiate" him to the workings of the EDC and we would also get ex-member Siracusa off the mailing list.

e) The new EHT Deputy Administrator (Jeff Mayfield) will be invited to the next EDC meeting.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 1:00 PM.

The next meeting was agreed to be held March 17, 2022 at noon, at the municipal offices.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul T. Chan
Acting Secretary