PORT AWARDS $13 MILLION CONTRACT FOR MILLWRIGHT LOOP ROAD CONSTRUCTION AT WATERFRONT PLACE

The Port of Everett Commission has awarded a $13 million construction contract to Burlington-based Interwest Construction Inc. to build out the next phase of infrastructure at the Millwright District — the second and largest phase of the Port's Waterfront Place mixed-use development.

The project includes constructing the Millwright Loop Roads and connecting roadways and infrastructure starting with removal and relocation of existing preload material from the roadway footprint and placing it in future construction locations for the district.

Next will be the installation of utilities, paving of roadways, expansion of the Central Marina esplanade, including build-out of two new vistas overlooking the Port of Everett Marina, and construction of two Central Marina parking lots, new sidewalks, lighting and landscape features.

HUNDREDS VISIT WITH NAUTICAL ARCHEOLOGISTS AT EQUATOR OPEN HOUSE

More than 300 people visited the historic Equator — a schooner-turned-tugboat that has sat on display at the Port of Everett Marina since she was raised from a breakwater along Jetty Island in 1967 — to see her before she is dismantled later this summer.

The Port held an open house on June 15 at the vessel's shed at 10th Street and Craftsman Way to share the Texas A&M archaeologists' work to document the vessel and the Port's plans to memorialize her.

A Seattle-based nautical archaeologist, a pair of Texas A&M University professors and seven of their students documented the 78-foot ship during a two-week survey in June.

In honor of the Equator, the Port plans to install an interpretive exhibit about the

The Millwright Loop Roads project is funded in part by the sale of a treasury note to the Snohomish County Treasurer's Office. This investment by the Treasurer's Office is the pilot for their new Community Investment Program, which sets out to invest locally while providing direct economic and community benefits back to the County.

As the Millwright Loop Roads project moves forward, the Port and selected development partner LPC West have executed an option agreement for the next phase of private development.

The 10-acre district will feature 60,000+ square feet of new retail/restaurants, 200,000+ sq. ft. of commercial/office space, and 300+ residential units.

Planning and design for the Millwright District, in coordination with Waterfront Place engineering firm PND Engineers, are now underway, with private development slated for the 2024-2027 timeframe.

vessel at the Waterfront Center, add a children's ship-themed playset at Jetty Landing Park, and salvage some of the Equator's materials so parts of the vessel can live on in local art.

Sign up for Jetty Island Days & Harbor Tours

Summer ferry reservations are now open for both Jetty Island Days and the Port's popular waterfront Harbor Tour series.

Catch a ride over to the Jetty for a beach day with service available five days a week (Wednesdays thru Sundays) from July 5–Sept. 3. New this year! You can now book return times. More @ www.portofeverett.com/jettyisland.

Looking for a behind-the-scenes educational experience? Book a “Working Waterfront” or “Throwback Thursday” harbor tour available on select Wednesdays and Thursdays in July and August. More @ www.portofeverett.com/porttours.

Reservations are required for both programs with fares ranging $3-$5 (plus taxes and fees). Children 2 and younger ride free but still require a reservation.

Crabbing Season Opens July 1

Grab your crab pots! Crabbing season is open July 1–Sept. 4 in many Puget Sound marina areas.

The daily limit is five Dungeness, six Red Rock and six Tanner. Dungeness must be at least 6¼ inches; Red Rock need to be at least 5 inches and Tanner must be 4½ inches. You are required to release all soft-shell and undersized crabs. Dungeness females must also be released.

Crabbing is allowed Thursdays thru Mondays only in the Strait of Juan de Fuca east of Bonilla-Tatoosh Island line off Neah Bay (Marine Area 4), Sekiu (Marine Area 5) and Port Angeles (Marine Area 6); the east side of Whidbey Island (Marine Areas 8-1 and 8-2); and northern Puget Sound (Marine Area 9).

Visit Washington Department of Fish & Wildlife's page @ wdfw.wa.gov/fishing/shellfishing-regulations/crab for a complete list of rules and regulations.

‘Moor’ Things To Do at Waterfront Place

Five new restaurants have opened or will open soon at the Port of Everett's Waterfront Place: At Port Gardner Landing, Sound 2 Summit Brewing Co. and Woods Coffee are now open. The Muse Whiskey & Coffee near Boxcar Park opens on July 7. At Fisherman's Harbor, Fisherman Jack's and South Fork Baking Co. are set to open in August.

Three marine service providers are also opening their Everett-based offices at Waterfront Place this summer. You'll find Freedom Boat Club, Bellingham Yacht Sales and Waterline Boats, as well as public restrooms, in the new building west of Hotel Indigo.

Watch for opening announcements on the Port's website and social media.

3 Fishing Derbies at Port this Summer

Three fishing derbies will bring “reel” fun to the Port of Everett this summer:

The 2nd annual Dawg Derby is taking place July 15. Groups are paired with a current Husky football player, and provided a skippered boat and fishing gear. More @ www.dawgderby.com.

Salmon for Soldiers' 11th annual Day of Honor is set for Aug. 19. Hundreds of veterans and their loved ones go out for a free day of fishing with volunteer boaters. Sign up @ www.salmonforsoldiers.com.

The 30th annual Everett Coho Derby — which bills itself as the biggest fishing derby on the West Coast — is taking place Sept. 23-24. Learn more @ www.everettcohoderby.com.

BOATING SAFETY | A Message From:

Though temperatures will heat up this summer, it's important to remember that water temperatures will remain cold throughout the boating season.

According to SeaTemperatures.org, Puget Sound averages 49 degrees in June, 51 degrees in July, 54 degrees in August and 53 degrees in September. An unexpected submersion in waters at these temperatures without protective clothing such as a wet or dry suit could result in hypothermia.

Symptoms include shivering, confusion, slurred speech, clumsiness, lack of coordination and loss of consciousness. Hypothermia symptoms can show up in three minutes, which means having a rescue plan is critical. Anybody who falls into the water should be treated as though they have the life-threatening condition. Hypothermia is a medical emergency — make a MAYDAY call.

Help save lives by requiring everybody on your boat to wear a life jacket. Ensure that you have enough life jackets and that they are in good shape, fit properly and are a different color than the water. Pay special attention to life jackets for children. If your jackets autoinflate, ensure the cylinders have not been punctured or show signs of corrosion. #1188

MEET PORT OF EVERTT'S NEW MARINA OPERATIONS MANAGER

After nearly a half-century of public service at the Port of Everett, Marina Operations Director Jim Weber has announced his retirement. The Port has hired Bryan Johnson Jr., former Senior Operations Facilities Coordinator for Shilshole Bay Marina, to take on the majority of Weber's role.

Johnson stepped in as the Port's new Marina Operations Manager on June 12. The role oversees maintenance operations of the largest public marina on the West Coast with a focus on marina facilities, boatyard operations, landscaping and the fuel dock. Weber has taken on an advisory role to provide support during the management transition until he retires on July 31.

“I want to thank Jim for his many years of outstanding service to the Port of Everett,”

Port of Everett CEO Lisa Lefeber said. “As the longest Port employee on record, he not only has witnessed a lot of change at the Marina but also had a hand in guiding that change to bring us where we are today. We wish Jim all the best in his well-deserved retirement.”

Throughout his Port career, Weber has helped design, build, maintain and upgrade many of the Marina's facilities and projects — from the South, Central and North Marinas to the Jetty Landing Boat Launch, Jetty Island Docks and Boxcar Park. He also helped design the Craftsman District Boatyard and Office and was part of the Waterfront Place project planning team.

Johnson joins the Port of Everett with 24 years of experience in marina operations and facilities management in various roles at the Port of Seattle. In addition to Shilshole Bay Marina, Johnson has been stationed at the Seattle port's Fisherman's Terminal, Harbor Island Marina and Bell Harbor Marina.

“I am so excited to join the Port of Everett Marina,” Johnson said. “This is a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity. If you look at the respect Jim has, he's basically been here for half the Port's life. I have Shaquille O'Neal-sized shoes to fill — but I know I'm capable.”

JOIN US FOR JIM WEBER'S RETIREMENT SENDOFF

You're invited to an open house in honor of Jim Weber on July 20 at The Muse Whiskey & Coffee near Boxcar Park. Stop by between 3-5 p.m. to share memories and your well wishes as he sets sail into retirement.

CHECK OUT THE MOVIE LINEUP FOR 8TH ANNUAL SAIL-IN CINEMA

The Port of Everett and presenting sponsor PND Engineers is excited to announce the 8th annual Sail-in Cinema at Waterfront Place.

You can “sail in” to watch aboard your boat OR “walk in” to enjoy the night's flick on a 40-foot inflatable screen at Boxcar Park. Guest moorage is available on a first-come, first-served basis at Guest Dock 7; a radio frequency is provided so boaters can tune in. (Please note: Guest moorage at North Guest Dock 6 is no longer available).

Boxcar Park opens one hour before showtime for moviegoers to snag their spot, enjoy music and yard games, grab free fresh-popped popcorn and purchase concessions. #18041
