Incident Details

On Monday 12/09/19, the Exeter Township Police Department will recognize three community members for their generosity and civic-mindedness. The recognition will be held at the Board of Supervisors Meeting at 7:00 PM. The recognized members will be:

1. Mr. Luis Mendoza of Walmart

- In his capacity as night manager of the Exeter Walmart Store #1777, Mr. Mendoza consistently worked in conjunction with Police Officers and coordinated corporate donations to contribute to numerous police involved community outreach programs.
- For his kindness and generosity, the Police Department would like to present Mr. Mendoza with a token of our gratitude.

2. Mr. David Vollmer, Jr.

- Mr. Vollmer, the owner of local company Isolator Fitness, has been a long-time supporter of the Exeter Township Police Department and the Exeter Township Police K9 Unit.
- He has gone so far as to found the "Exeter K-9 Partners," a non-profit organization specifically established to help support the Police K9 Unit so that it can continue to provide valuable services to the Community.
- For his tireless efforts to form and grow the Exeter K-9 Partners, and for partnership that he continues to foster with the Police, the Department would like to present Mr. Vollmer with a token of our appreciation and gratitude.

3. Mr. Terrance Derr, Jr.

- Mr. Derr, the owner of local company Lords and Ladies, responded to the call for assistance put out by the Exeter K-9 Partners by serving as the primary sponsor for a main fundraiser in 2019.
- His generosity covered the cost of the venue and all the operating costs, which meant that 100% of the funds raised could go directly to the Exeter Township Police K-9 Unit.
- For his generosity to a cause supporting a specialty program within the Police Department, the Exeter Twp. Police K-9 Unit would like to present Mr. Derr with an appropriately hand drawn work of art completed by local artist Derik Fetters.
