

Exeter Township Police Department

News Release

Date 12/13/2019	Incident Type Aggravated Assault w/ Gun & Robbery Arrest- Liberty Tap Room
	Incident # 25-19-5465	Incident Date 11/02/2019
Location of Incident 237 N. Prospect Street, Reading, PA 19606 - Libery Tap Room
Involved Person(s) Marque A. LIAS, Theadore R. WILLIAMS Jr.

Incident Details

The Exeter Township Police Department has made multiple felony arrests stemming from an incident that occurred at the Liberty Tap Room on 11/2/19. Marque LIAS and Theadore WILLIAMS Jr. have been criminally charged as a result of their involvement with the violent incident.

On 11/2/19 the two aforementioned defendants were involved in a physical altercation with two female victims in the parking lot of the Liberty Tap Room, 237 N. Prospect Street, Reading, PA 19606. During the altercation one female was beaten with a handgun while the other was robbed of her cell phone.

Both females were further assaulted while on the ground. Police investigation and assistance from the public lead to the identification of the two males.

Charges:

Marque LIAS:

Robbery (felony)
Simple Assault (misdemeanor)
Criminal Mischief
Harassment
Disorderly Conduct

Theadore R. Williams Jr.

Aggravated Assault (felony)
Reckless Endangering another Person (misdemeanor)
Simple Assault (misdemeanor)
Harrassment

For more information, contact Public Information Officer, Sergeant Sean Fullerton at 610-779-1490

