could answer difficult questions that very few individuals knew the answers to. Employees will miss him because he had the trust of employees when it came to insurance, retirement, etc.” He commended him for his service.

Mayor Alexander expressed that on the other hand, as Former Council Member Ramirez stepped down the person that would replace him is Former Director of Recreation Paul Casias. He is acquainted with the inter-workings of the City’s budget, working with employees, etc. He welcomed Newly Elected Council Member Casias to the City.

Council Member Casias thanked everyone for being in attendance; for taking time from their busy schedule. He thanked everyone that cast their ballot and was thrilled about the turnout. He was especially content about where he was now. “I will do the best job that I possibly can. I will be here for the community.”

There being no further business, the Special City Council Meeting was adjourned @ 5:17 p.m. for a Congratulatory Reception.
