Dir.)

Human Resources Director Sara Mata explained several changes were made to the Personnel Policies & Procedures Manual.

City Manager Frank Rodriguez III explained there was a change from the pay steps to pay grade.

Public Safety personnel, who include Law Enforcement Officers, shall abide by the Fair Labor Standards Act 207(k) Exemption which will require a minimum of 171 hours worked per 28-day period before being compensated for overtime or accrual of compensatory time.

Longevity Pay shall be paid at a new rate of $12.00 per pay period for each completed year of service for full-time employees.

The City Council has approved a Cost of Living Adjustment (COLA), reflected in the current fiscal budget, for full-time employees that are not on a Probationary period.

Public Safety personnel, who include Law Enforcement Officers that are subject to FLSA 207(k), will be considered for compensation under FLSA. Only hours that are actually worked and surpass 171 hours in the applicable 28-day period will be paid at the overtime rate of one and one-half (1 1/2) times the regular rate of pay.

When an out of town trip requires travel on the day before or after the event, those travel days will qualify for a per diem of $36 per day. When an out of town trip is for a single day longer than 12 hours, or for multiple days, the per diem will be paid at $59 per day, not including travel days.

Public Safety personnel, (FLSA 207(k) exempt employees) will receive 40 hours Holiday Leave per fiscal year, Unused Holiday Leave will be forfeited at the end of the fiscal year.
