

RULES OF ORDER

For the general transaction of business, the ordinary parliamentary rules should be observed; in case of any disputation, Robert's Rules of Order, Revised, shall be taken as authority.

Any rules of the Board of Trustees may be suspended or amended by a majority vote of the entire Board.

Adopted:     October 30, 1973

Note: The chairman has full voice and vote on all matters before the Board. The chairman may also introduce motions.
