About the Chamber

Founded in 1947, the Greenville Area Chamber of Commerce focuses on fostering a favorable business climate, which contributes to vibrant local economy.

GACC serves businesses ranging from entrepreneurs to corporations. We collaborate with community partners in economic development, school-to-work pathways for local students, workforce development, business networking opportunities and community events.

Residents are welcome to use the Chamber's mobile friendly website, www.greenvillemi.org for quick access to local businesses or a listing for a product or service. Calls to our office at 616-754-5697 are also welcome to request a referral for a business service. New residents to our community will receive a personalized "Welcome" mailed directly to them providing free goods and/or services from local businesses.

Trails & Parks

- Take a stroll (or ride) on our award-winning Fred Meijer Flat River Trail. This beautiful trail surrounds the city winding along the Flat River connected with bridges and even an underground tunnel under M-57.
- The Fred Meijer Heartland Trail connects with the Meijer Flat River Trail at Jackson Landing (M-57) and travels northeasterly 25.8 miles from the parking area on M-91 in Greenville to Edmore.
- The Fred Meijer Flat River Valley Trail also intersects with the Fred Meijer Flat River Trail at Jackson Landing (M-57) and will take you south through Belding and Lowell.
- Canoe and Kayak Launch at Jackson's Landing (M-57). Paddlers of all abilities will be able to launch using the unique ADA accessible launch, paddle downstream to Belding and take-out at Belding using the identical launch.
- Veteran's Memorial Park in the heart of our community provides sand volleyball court, basketball courts, picnic area and a new state-of-the-art skateboard facility.
- Tower Riverside Park sits along the Flat River providing a scenic picnic area with a new splash pad for families to enjoy. Bring your lawn chair on the 3rd Thursday evening as Rotary presents Rhythm On The River (Jun-Aug).
- Enjoy the other 11 parks though out the community offering Disc Golf, playgrounds, tennis courts, pickleball courts and more.

Taking in the Arts

- Flat River Community Players
- Flat River Historical Museum
- NCG Cinemas Movie theatre
- Rhythm on the River
- Fighting Falcon Military Museum
- Grand Rapids Symphony
- GPS music & theatre department
