Applicants with physical handicaps shall be given equal consideration with other applicants for positions in which their physical handicaps do not represent an unreasonable barrier to satisfactory performance of duties.

All personnel responsible for recruitment and employment shall implement this policy through procedures that will assure equal employment opportunity based on reasonable performance-related job requirements. Notices with regard to equal employment matters shall be posted in conspicuous places on county government premises in places where notices are customarily posted.

II.2 General Procedures

All positions for employment shall be approved by the Board of County Commissioners. - (a) A "Promotion" is defined as a move from one job class to another job class that is assigned to a higher salary grade.
- (b) It shall be the policy of the county to seek qualified applicants for vacant positions, giving first consideration to promoting from within and across department lines. In the absence of qualified candidates for promotion, vacancies shall be filled by recruiting from outside the county government.
- (c) Employees shall be considered for promotion on the basis of job-related experience, skill, knowledge and ability, and a review of the quality of past performance and general suitability for the higher level position.
- (d) When the promotional qualifications of two (2) or more employees are judged to be equal, the employee with the longest service with the county may be promoted.
- (e) A department head's recommendation to promote an employee must be reviewed and approved by the county manager.

III.2 Transfer

A "transfer" is defined as a lateral move from one department, division or work unit to another, without change in job, class or salary grade.

It is the policy of the county to transfer employees temporarily or permanently from one department, division or work unit to another when doing so will serve the county's best interest.

A transfer to an authorized vacancy may also be arranged upon mutual agreement of all interested administrative officials and the employee.

III.3 Demotion

A "demotion" is defined as a move from one job class to another job class in an authorized vacancy which is assigned to a lower salary grade.

The county may find it appropriate to demote an employee as a result of unusual circumstances.

III.4 Separation from Employment

All separations of employees from positions in the service of the county shall be designated as one of the following types and shall be accomplished in the manner indicated: Resignation, layoff, disability, retirement, dismissal or death.

III.5 Resignation

"Resignation" is defined as a voluntary action taken by an employee whereby advance notice is given to the employee's superior and the county manager of the employee's intention to resign.

All employees are required to give at least two weeks notice of their intention to resign.

Failure to comply with this requirement may be cause for denying reemployment with the county.

III.6 Layoff

(a) "Layoff" is defined as a separation from employment because of an organizational change, lack of work, lack of funds or other reasons that reflect no discredit upon the employee.

(b) In the event that a reduction in force becomes necessary, consideration will be given to numerous factors in determining those employees to be retained. Among the various factors which will be considered are the following:

(1) Operational needs of the county. First consideration will be given to those employees in the affected unit who possess special knowledge, skills or abilities needed by the county and who have proven records of satisfactory service.

(2) Employee work performance. The quality of each employee's past work performance will be taken into consideration. Attendance, initiative, productivity, cooperation, etc., will be taken into account in determining the quality of each employee's past work performance.

(3) Seniority. Length of service will be given consideration after the operational needs of the county and quality of past work performance have been evaluated. Only when all other factors are equal (as determined at the sole discretion of the county) will seniority be a factor in deciding which employees will be subject to the reduction in force.

(c) A reduction in force will only affect those employees in the department, division or work unit or service area involved in making the reduction necessary.

(d) In the discretion of the county, a number of alternatives may be considered prior to effecting a reduction in force as follows:

(1) Lateral transfers. Employees of the affected department, division or work unit may be placed in other jobs, departments, divisions or work units, where vacancies exist and where the employees in question have proven to possess the necessary qualifications and work habits.

- (2) Promotions. Promotional opportunities inside and outside the affected department, division or work unit may be announced, so that qualified employees in the affected department, division or work unit might apply.
- (3) Voluntary demotions. Affected employees may be considered for voluntary demotion to lower level positions in the event that vacancies exist either inside or outside the affected department, division or work unit.
- (e) The factors to be considered for selecting employees for lateral transfers, promotions and voluntary demotions will be the same as those used in determining those to be retained or separated due to a reduction in force.
- (f) Those employees laid off due to a reduction in force will be given notice of such action as soon as possible. No regular employee will be separated while there are temporary employees serving in the same job class in the department, unless the regular employee is not willing to transfer to the position held by the temporary employee. Employees serving a probationary period following a promotion shall be considered regular employees for the purpose of reduction in force.

III.7 Disability

An employee may be separated for disability when the employee cannot perform the required duties because of a physical or mental impairment so long as the separation is not in conflict with the Americans with Disabilities Act. Action may be initiated by the employee or the county, but in all cases it shall be supported by medical evidence as certified by a competent physician. The county may require an examination at its expense and performed by a physician of its choice. Before an employee is separated for disability, a reasonable effort shall be made to locate alternative positions within the county service for which the employee may be suited.

III.8 Retirement

The county does not endorse a mandatory retirement age. Notification of intention to retire is the same as that for resignation.

III.9 Dismissal

An employee may be removed from service with the county for reason of misconduct or inability to perform the job. Dismissals for reason of misconduct will be based upon the conditions of employment outlined in this policy.

III.10 Death

All compensation due will be paid to the estate of a deceased employee. The date of death shall be recorded as the separation date for computing compensation due.

III.11 Disciplinary Actions

Violation of regulations relating to (1) performance of duties or (2) personal conduct detrimental to county service may result in disciplinary action. An employee, regardless of occupation, position, profession or work performed, may be warned, reprimanded, placed on probation, demoted, transferred, suspended or dismissed for just cause. The degree and kind of action to be taken will be based upon the sound and considered judgment of the appropriate authority in accordance with the provisions of this policy.

Definitions of disciplinary actions listed above are as follows:

- (b) Demotion. A regular employee may be demoted as a disciplinary action for reasonable cause.
- (c) Suspension. Under certain conditions, an employee may be suspended for cause. The causes for suspension fall into two categories, (1) those related to the performance of duties and (2) causes related to personal conduct detrimental to county service. Suspension for cause can be further broken down into the following categories:
 - (1) Suspension with pay.
 - (2) Suspension without pay.
 - (3) Suspension with recommendation of dismissal.

The above classifications will be at the discretion of the county manager and will be based upon the severity of the cause.

- (d) Dismissal. Employees dismissed for unsatisfactory performance of duties should receive least two (2) warnings, as follows:
 - (1) An oral warning, with a follow-up form to the employee which sets forth the points covered in the discussion; and
 - (2) A written warning, which will serve notice upon the employee that a continuation of the unacceptable job performance may result in disciplinary action or dismissal.

The two (2) warnings may relate to the same cause or to separate and different causes. No warning will be given before dismissal for some serious offenses.

III.12 Employee Appeal

A regular employee wishing to appeal a demotion, transfer, suspension or dismissal may present the matter in accordance with the provisions of the grievance procedure.

III.13 Reinstatement and Transfer of Sick and Annual Leave

The county forbids harassment of employees because of age, race, sex, color, religion, handicap, national origin and marital status. "Harassment" is defined as behavior that reasonably offends an employee. This type of behavior is unacceptable, and, even in mild forms, such harassment constitutes unsatisfactory job performance and is subject to disciplinary action. More serious instances of harassment will carry more severe penalties, up to and including dismissal.

If an employee is being harassed by his/her supervisor, another employee or a non-employee, the employee shall tell the person that his or her behavior is offensive and should stop. If the matter is not settled, the subject of the harassment is encouraged to follow the grievance procedure.

IV.12 Workplace Violence

The county has a zero-tolerance policy relating to the communication of threats, verbal harassment, physical assaults, or other forms of inappropriate behavior or unreasonably aggressive behavior and will not be condoned. Such behavior is a conduct issue. Employees found in violation will be subject to appropriate discipline as outlined in this personnel manual.

For hours over 171 in the 28-day pay period, compensatory time shall be given at a rate of one and one-half hours for each hour of overtime worked.

Unless otherwise defined, employees will work a minimum of 37.5 hour work week.

IV.16 Information Release and Personnel Action Forms

A release form may be obtained from the county manager's office.

Section V: Grievance and Adverse Action Appeal Procedure

V.1 Grievance and Adverse Action Defined

A grievance is a claim or complaint based upon an event or condition which affects the circumstances under which an employee works, allegedly caused by misinterpretation, unfair application or lack of established policy pertaining to employment conditions. A grievance might involve alleged safety or health hazards, unsatisfactory physical facilities, surroundings, materials or equipment, unfair or discriminatory supervisory or disciplinary practices, unjust treatment by fellow workers, unreasonable work quotas or any other grievance relating to conditions of employment.

An adverse action is a demotion, dismissal, reduction in pay, layoff or undesirable transfer or suspension.

V.2 Purposes

The grievance and adverse action policy is designed to assure an employee or group of employees of fair, impartial and prompt consideration of a problem or dissatisfaction without fear or reprisal. The procedure also encourages employees at all levels to express themselves regarding conditions of work. The grievance and adverse action policy is intended to promote better understanding of policies, practices and procedures; to instill confidence in employees that fair and impartial treatment will be received; and to develop in supervisors a continuing sense of responsibility for maintaining effective working relationships with subordinate employees.

All employees, including supervisors and department heads, are expected to discuss their problems and misunderstandings with their superiors.

V.3 Procedure for Employees Not Alleging Discrimination

For any regular county employee having a problem or grievance arising out of or due to his/her employment and who does not allege discrimination because of age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, creed, physical disability or political affiliation, the following procedure is available:

- (a) Step 1. Informal discussion with immediate supervisor or department head. An employee who feels he/she has a grievance shall first discuss the problem with the immediate supervisor. The employee must tell the supervisor about the grievance as soon as possible, but not later than seven (7) calendar days following the incident or action that caused or revealed the problem. If the employee feels the grievance is not resolved, the employee may proceed to the next step of the procedure.
- (b) Step 2. Appeal to department head. An employee may request a hearing with the department head to appeal an unresolved grievance. Such a request must be received by the department head in writing from the employee no later than 10 calendar days following the event that caused or revealed the grievance.

After reviewing the request, the department head shall notify the employee and immediate supervisor of a date and time for a hearing, which will be held no later than 20 calendar days after the matter is brought to the supervisor's attention. The employee may choose one fellow employee to attend the hearing to help present the case and the immediate supervisor shall attend to explain his/her position.

The department head will open the meeting with an informal discussion of the problem and will explore possible solutions with those in attendance. Every effort shall be made during this discussion to resolve the grievance to the satisfaction of all concerned. If the grievance is resolved, a written record will be placed in the appropriate personnel files; however, if the grievance cannot be resolved through this discussion, the parties will together prepare a written report of all sides of the issue, which shall be promptly to the county manager for further consideration through the next step.

- (c) Step 3. Appeal to county manager. The county manager shall review the written report and may request additional information and documentation. Based upon the information contained in the report and/or other documentation, the county manager shall determine whether or not a formal hearing shall be held.

If the county manager determines that an appeals hearing is in order, the county manager shall notify all concerned of a time and date to conduct an appeals hearing, to take place as soon as possible, but not later than 15 calendar days after the problem is presented. This appeal hearing may be held by the county manager, or the report and documents may be referred to a special grievance committee for hearing, investigation and recommendation. Such a grievance committee shall include three classified county employees. One shall be appointed by the county manager, and one fellow employee shall be appointed by the complaining employee. The third member of the special grievance committee, who will act as chairperson, shall be appointed by the first 2 appointees. If requested by the county manager, the committee shall hold a hearing with all parties concerned not later than 25 calendar days after the problem reaches the county manager. At this hearing, the grievance committee shall review the grievance report and other documentation, make further investigations, if necessary, and refer the committee recommendation to the county manager.

The county manager shall furnish written notice of his/her ruling to the employee, the immediate supervisor and the department head. This notice shall be made not later than 30 calendar days from the day the case or ruling reaches the county manager.

The decision rendered by the county manager shall be final. Any deviation from the above procedure shall be considered a violation of the county's personnel policy and may subject the violating parties to disciplinary actions.

V.4 Procedure for Employees, etc., Alleging Discrimination

Any applicant for county employment, county employee or former county employee who has reason to believe that employment, promotion, training or transfer was denied to him or her or that demotion, layoff or termination of employment was forced upon him or her because of age, sex, race, color, national origin, religion, creed or physical disability shall have the right to appeal directly to the county manager. Such an appeal shall be handled in the manner as prescribed in step three of the appeals procedure for nondiscriminatory grievances. An employee or applicant must appeal an alleged act of discrimination within 30 days of the alleged discriminatory action.

V.5 Back Pay and Benefits Awards

Back pay and benefits may be awarded by the county manager to reinstated employees in suspension, demotion, dismissal and discrimination.

The employee may make arrangements with his or her supervisor for an additional four unpaid days off in the instance of the death of an immediate family member. Additional unpaid time off may be granted depending on the circumstances such as distance, the individual's responsibility for funeral arrangements, and the employee's responsibility for taking care of the estate of the deceased. Section VIII: Classification and Pay

VIII.1 Position Classification Plan

A description of each full-time regular position employed by the county is included in the position classification plan. Each employee is invited to review this plan to help achieve better understanding of the requirements and responsibilities of his or her job.

VIII.2 Pay Plan

The pay plan is a companion to the position classification plan. Each position is assigned a pay range with a minimum and maximum rate of pay. The pay plan is intended to provide equitable compensation for all positions.

VIII.3 Pay Scales and Levels

Progression up the pay plan is based on the following system:

- (a) Beginning pay rates. The normal beginning pay rate for a new employee will be the minimum rate in the established range for the positions in the class; however, the county manager may in special cases authorize initial appointments above or below the minimum.
- (b) Merit pay raise. The amount in each pay grade represent potential merit increases which may be recommended by a department head and approved by the county manager, subject to the quality of performance by the worker and the availability of funds. A formal evaluation on a prescribed form shall be completed for every employee upon completion of the employee's probationary period, and at least once a year thereafter.
- (c) Certifications. Any cost associated with certifications as a condition of employment in a specific job class will be paid at 100%; and a $1,000 will be added to the base pay upon obtainment of certification.

Department heads who are under the supervision of the county manager shall have their work performance evaluated at least annually by the county manager. The tax assessor, tax collector, county manager and Clerk to the Board shall have other work performance evaluated by the Board of County Commissioners.

VIII.4 Fair Labor Standards Act and Overtime Provisions

This policy is based on regulations contained in the U. S. Department of Labor, Wage and Hour Division Publication 1459 of which excerpts are below:

(a) Agreement

This policy will serve as the agreement with each individual employee as per the regulations noted in paragraph 553.23 of the Federal Register with a signed statement by each employee to go in individual personnel files stating they have received a copy of this policy prior to performance of any work under this policy.

(b) Workweek

Unless otherwise noted in this policy, the workweek for all county employees will begin at 12:01 A.M. Monday and end at 12:00 A.M. Sunday.

(c) Non-Exempt Employees

Overtime for non-exempt employees shall begin to accrue once an employee has worked over 40 hours in a workweek.

Use of overtime is to be administered in this category by department heads subject to budget constraints and the county manager's review. Methods of handling overtime are given in order of preference.

- (1) The simplest and most preferred method is to not let employees work overtime. Schedule employees as to not have them working over 40 hours a week.
- (2) If the above is not possible, the next best method is use of the "time-off" plan. Under this plan, the supervisor lays off the employee for a sufficient number of hours during some other week or weeks of the pay period so that the desired wage or salary for the overtime compensation due the employee for each workweek taken separately.
- (3) If none of the above can be used, compensatory time shall be given at a rate of one and one-half hours for each hour of overtime worked. The maximum compensatory time which may be accrued by any affected employee shall be 240 hours (not more than 160 hours of actual overtime hours worked) unless otherwise stated.

An employee should use the accrued compensatory time within a reasonable length of time (preferably within 3 months). The request must be approved by the department head and should be scheduled so that it does not unduly disrupt the operations of the said department.

An employee who has accrued the maximum number of compensatory hours shall be paid overtime compensation in cash for any additional overtime hours of work.

An employee going from a non-exempt to an exempt position may be paid out accumulated compensatory time at the time of transfer to the exempt position. Compensatory time will be paid at the rate of the non-exempt position.

Payment for accrued compensatory time upon termination of employment shall be calculated at the average regular rate of pay for the final 3 years of employment, or the final regular rate received by the employee, whichever is the higher.

(d) Exempt Employees

Overtime for exempt employees shall begin to accrue once an employee has worked over 40 hours in a workweek. Use of overtime is to be administered in this category by department heads subject to budget constraints and the county manager's review. Methods of handling overtime are given in order of preference.

- (1) The simplest and most preferred method is to not let employees work overtime. Schedule employees as to not have them working over 40 hours a week.
- (2) If the above is not possible, the next best method is use of the "time-off" plan as discussed for non-exempt employees but giving straight time off instead of 1.5 time for hours over 40.

If none of the above can be used, compensatory time shall be given at a rate of one hour for each hour of overtime worked. The maximum compensatory time which may be accrued by any affected employee shall be 80 hours.

An exempt employee must use accumulated comp hours within three (3) months of accrual.

An employee who has accrued the maximum number of compensatory hours may not continue to accrue compensatory hours until some of the 80 hours have been taken off. Any overtime hours worked beyond the 80 will be lost with no compensation. It shall be a violation of County policy for an exempt employee to put more than 80 hours compensatory time on any timesheet. At termination there is no compensation for the accrued balance of compensatory time.

(e) Gap Time

Gap time is defined as those 2.5 hours in each workweek that are between the county's 37.5 hour workweek and the FLSA workweek of 40 hours for overtime purposes.

All county employees in the above exempt and non-exempt categories shall accrue gap time at a rate of one hour for each hour worked. This gap time will be accounted for separate and apart from compensatory time and will not have a maximum. However, at the end of the pay period containing January 1 and July 1 of each year, any accrued amount which has not been taken will be lost and the gap time balance will be 0. There will be no other form of compensation for these hours worked.

(f) Elected Officials

Elected officials are totally exempt from the FLSA standards. No provisions of FLSA or Hertford County Personnel Policy Manual outlined here are applicable as there are no control mechanisms governing their work hours.

(g) Law Enforcement Personnel

The employees of the Sheriff's Department who have the power of arrest are subject to a 28-day work period in which they can work up to 171 hours before overtime compensation has to be paid. For hours over 171 in the 28-day pay period, compensatory time shall be given at a rate of one and one-half hours for each hour of overtime worked. The maximum compensatory time which may be accrued by any affected employee shall be 480 hours (not more than 320 hours of actual overtime hours worked).

An employee should use the accrued compensatory time within a reasonable length of time (preferably within 3 months). The request must be approved by the department head and should be scheduled so that it does not unduly disrupt the operations of the said department.

An employee who has accrued the maximum number of compensatory hours shall be paid overtime compensation in cash for any additional overtime hours of work.

Payment for accrued compensatory time upon termination of employment shall be calculated at the average regular rate of pay for the final 3 years of employment or the final regular rate received by the employee, whichever is the higher.

(h) Control of Overtime

Unauthorized and accrual use of overtime will be dealt with as a violation of county policy. Employees who abuse overtime or supervisors who allow an abuse of overtime as determined by the county manager will be subject to Section III.11 Disciplinary Actions.

This recommendation is an attempt by management to treat employees in a fair and equitable manner. It goes beyond what is legally required under the Fair Labor Standards Act.
