Matter of review of the proposed 2020/2021 City Budget

Finance Director Tim Rowland provided an overview of the City's revenue picture three months into the fiscal year. He noted that some capital projects had been put on hold because of the uncertain revenue projections. City staff is now ready to make recommendations on what projects to move forward with and which ones to postpone for now.

The City Commission further discussed the capital project recommendations and asked for alternate wage increase scenarios.

The Special Meeting of the City Commission adjourned at 7:32 p.m.
