Narrative:

La Plata County Sheriff's Office is releasing the following information pursuant to CRS 16-13-901 through 16-13-905 which authorizes law enforcement to inform the public of convicted and registered sex offenders' release from custody when offenders have been determined to present high potential to re-offend.

31 year old Ian Vincent Taylor, who was previously convicted of Attempted Sex Assault on a Child, will be released from the Colorado Department of Corrections in the last week of October, 2023. Taylor has served prison time in connection to his conviction for the above stated crime, and will be on Parole upon his release from DOC. Ian Taylor's has no current living address and will be regarded as "transient" in Durango, CO. Taylor is described as: white male, 5'8"; 180 pounds, blond hair, blue eyes. Sex offense convictions related to Taylor were from cases in 2016 and involved adolescents. Specific information on that case is not released in order to protect victims.

Per Colorado Revised Statutes (CRS), use of this information to harass, threaten or intimidate the offender, the offenders significant others, or the community notification team will not be tolerated and could result in criminal charges against those who attempt to do so. This information is released simply for public awareness. Anyone who may have questions or information regarding Mr. Taylor may contact his supervising Parole officer, William Bishop 970-255-9126 or Deputy Cyrus A. Nabors with the La Plata County Sheriff's Office at 970-382-7069.
