

Joe Needham

Joe was elected to the Logan City Council at the age of 27, served one term and now 20 years later wishes to serve and bring years of experience and his listening skills to the table.

Born and raised on the west side of Logan Joe has seen many changes to the city as it has grown in population and has concerns as we move forward dealing with keeping Logan a place we all can call home.

Joe has been lucky to know the last six mayors serving two of which he worked hand in hand as a young councilman. Joe has always had a love for his city and cares for its future, solving problems and trying to make a difference, making Logan a place where families feel safe and are happy to live.

Joe has four wonderful children with his wife Jenilyn Groutage Needham of nineteen years of marriage. He has 32 years of business experience, managed a myriad of retail businesses, including online businesses and jewelry manufacturing. Joe has been designing and creating, selling to the public since the young age of 13. He has learned how to listen and create what individuals want in the jewelry they wear. He studied at USU and the Revere Academy of Jewelry Arts in San Francisco. Learn more at www.votejoeneedham.com

His Service experience include a few

Logan City Council
President of the downtown alliance
Created the Energy Renewal Board of Logan City
Served many years on the Summerfest committee
Served on the Library Board
Logan Historic Committee – Current Church service – Current

Joe voted for (while serving on the city council from 2004-2008)

County wide recycling program
County wide ambulance system
Down zoning properties to single family
New roadway to reduce congestion on main street
Net metering to jump start the solar power revolution
Licensing of landlords
And more..... Joe fights to keep our community strong and wants to hear from you. He wants to bring your concerns to the table.

In Joe's pastime, he enjoys adventuring with his kids, bicycling, skiing, art and anything outdoors!

