Osborn Artists Featured at New Exhibit

City of Manassas, VA . . . There is a new exhibit in The Hall at City Hall featuring the work of Osborn High School students. These students are incredibly talented and each one-of-a-kind piece is a creation through the artists eye. Pieces range from water colors, to pastels, to photography to sculpture and even quilting.

This exhibit is worth the trip. Osborn art students work hard all year to present their best pieces at this event. This is the 15th year that Osborn High School students have exhibited at City Hall.

These pieces and more can be viewed at 9027 Center Street, Monday through Friday, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. and are free to the public.

Exhibits in The Hall at City Hall rotate on a monthly basis and include different forms of visual art. For more information about art in the City of Manassas, visit www.manassascity.org/art.
