Manassas Mayor Receives Prestigious Award

City of Manassas, VA . . . On April 2, 2022 at the annual Prince William County Bar Association Dinner Dance, Mayor Michelle Davis-Younger was presented with the Justitia Award from the Prince William Chapter of the Virginia Women Attorney's Association (VWAA). This award recognizes exemplary role models in the legal community who support and promote the goals of the VWAA and, in particular, demonstrate the following strengths:

- Commitment to justice and the women of Prince William County
- A generosity of spirit and skills
- Demonstrated leadership
- Embodies the role of a trailblazer, coach, innovator, mentor, and groundbreaker

“We chose Mayor Davis-Younger as winner of the 2021 Justitia Award because she was elected in November 2020 to Mayor of the City of Manassas and took office in January 2021 as the first woman, woman of color, and Democrat to hold the position,” said Corrie Sirkin of the Nova Legal Professionals. “She is a trailblazer and groundbreaker in many regards. She has initiatives including programs like My Mayor Looks Like Me program that shows young girls and women the opportunities that they have to serve their community. She takes time out of her schedule to speak to students throughout her constituency and beyond. As a human resources professional, she has helped numerous people in our community to find employment and has helped Manassas grow and support individuals and businesses during the pandemic. She is generous of her time in working to improve the lives of young people.”
