

Status and Upcoming News

Work Performed from November 6th – November 17th

Construction signs for upcoming road work were installed and covered along Grant Avenue and the Georgetown South neighborhood.

Silt fencing for controlling sediment runoff was installed along Grant Avenue

Landscaping to clear out the work zone was started along Grant Avenue near Prince William street.

Columbia Gas has continued with relocation work between Taney Road and Wellington Road.

Upcoming Work for November 6th – November 17th

Additional construction signs and other traffic control devices will continue to be mounted throughout Grant Avenue and Georgetown South as needed. Silt fence and inlet protection will continue to be installed to control sediment runoff along Grant Avenue. Construction of drainage, curb, and sidewalk improvements along Grant Avenue will begin in southbound lanes at Prince William Street.

Major Events

11/13/23 Work began at the intersection of Grant Avenue and Prince William Street

Traffic Impacts

Columbia Gas will have ongoing, daily lane closures to complete relocation work between Wellington Road and Byrd Drive.

Temporary lane closure at the intersection of Grant Avenue and Prince William Street began on 11/13/23 and will continue with daily closures from 9:00am – 3:00pm.