

Status and Upcoming News

Work Performed from November 20th – December 1st

Construction signs for upcoming road work were installed and covered along Grant Avenue.

Silt fencing for controlling sediment runoff was installed along Grant Avenue

Test pitting to determine possible conflicts with existing utility lines started along Grant Avenue near Wellington Road and Douglas Street.

Columbia Gas has continued with relocation work between Taney Road and Wellington Road.

Upcoming Work for December 4th – November 15th

Construction of street improvements along Grant Avenue will resume in the southbound lanes at Prince William Street. White picket fencing will be removed along Grant Avenue between Bartow Street and Buckner Road. Silt fencing for controlling sediment runoff will be installed in areas where white picket fencing is removed. Test pitting along Grant Avenue will continue in southbound lanes near Bartow Street and Prince William Street.

Major Events

- 11/29/23 Test pitting began along Grant Avenue near Douglas Street and Wellington Road
- 12/6/23 White picket fencing to be removed along Grant Avenue between Bartow Street and Buckner Road

Traffic Impacts

- Columbia Gas will have ongoing, daily lane closures to complete relocation work between Wellington Road and Byrd Drive.
- Temporary lane closure at the intersection of Grant Avenue and Prince William Street are expected to resume on 12/04/23. Lane closures will last from 9:00am to 3:00pm each day.