The Frederick County Court House in Winchester, built in 1840, served as a prison, hospital, and barracks for both sides during the Civil War. Soldiers wrote their names and drew pictures on the walls, some of which can still be seen. The building now houses the Shenandoah Valley Civil War Museum, which includes the restored court room, the John Brown Trial virtual reality experience, the "One Story... A Thousand Voices" exhibit on the Civil War in the Valley, and the remarkable graffiti on the walls.

Northern Virginia Civil War Graffiti Trail

Follow the trail of Union soldiers and Confederate defenders as they swept through the Northern Virginia countryside. Discover the graffiti they left in homes, churches, and public buildings during the Civil War.

The Northern Virginia Civil War Graffiti Trail will lead you from the vibrant suburbs to rolling hills and farmlands. Our sites and towns will reveal a unique glimpse of the common Civil War soldiers as they fought in this decisive event of our American history.
