

The Season of Giving: Giving Tuesday

The Marshall Adult Community Center loves the idea of being able to create a legacy. As a part of building a LEGACY one must think about sustainability. Which is the ability to keep A Legacy going far beyond our individual use. One way to sustain in through giving. As we are fastly approaching the holiday season I think its so important to think about giving.

Did you know that Giving Tuesday is taking place on December 3? This is a global day of giving that harnesses the collective power of individuals, communities and organizations to encourage giving and celebrate generosity. I absolutely love that this day falls during the center of the holiday season...following Black Friday and Cyber Monday. This global movement is one in which millions of people worldwide across the globe mobilize to show up, give back and change their communities. The goal is to create a massive wave of generosity that lasts well beyond that day and touches every person on the planet.

Founded in 2012, Giving Tuesday has inspired millions of people to give back and support the causes they believe in. Giving can include so many different areas from volunteering, donations, and random acts of kindness.

As we head into the 2019 holiday season take a few minutes and think about the reasons you give.

The gift of giving....

Why do you give? Complete this sentence. I GIVE BECAUSE....

Here are some points to ponder...

I GIVE BECAUSE: Giving helps establish and build a foundational base that will continue for years to come.

I GIVE BECAUSE: Giving is about preserving a piece of what you perceive as your heaven on earth.....it is what you believe in.

I GIVE BECAUSE: It Can Change a Life
