NOTICE – Plaintiff(s) are required by law to file a Satisfaction of Judgment with all courts in which the judgment is filed. Once Defendant(s) has paid the debt (judgment) as ordered in this matter, Defendant(s) should be sure the Plaintiff(s) sign the satisfaction of judgment. Defendant(s) should make sure it is filed with all courts in which the judgment has been filed. The Court will then note upon the record in the execution docket that the judgment in this matter has been satisfied. The lien of the judgment shall then be discharged.

SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT FILED BY DEFENDANT(S) – Defendant(s) hereby certifies (or declares) under penalty of perjury under the laws of the State of Washington that the judgment in this matter has been paid in full. Defendant(s) is filing this satisfaction of judgment because Plaintiff(s) has failed to file proof of satisfaction of judgment. RCW 12.40.____ (laws of 2019, ch. 251, §7).
