Incarcerated individual Bail Payments

Inmate bail can be paid directly at the Orleans County Jail, 24 hours per day 7 days per week.

1. When paying an inmate's bail you will be required to submit a form of valid identification prior to the jail accepting the bail money.
2. If you are using a credit card your name must appear on the credit card.
3. The following methods are acceptable for paying an inmate's bail:
 - a. Cash – Exact Amount.
 - b. Credit Card – You may not use another individual's credit card to post bail.
4. There is a non-refundable transaction fee associated with using the jail's credit card bail services.

Remote Bail

An incarcerated individual's bail can also be paid using a credit card from a remote location using the following link: <https://allpaid.com/>

The defendant will be released once the facility receives confirmation that the bail transaction has been completed

There is a non-refundable transaction fee associated with using the jail's credit card bail services.

Inmate Bond

Bail Bonds are a process, in which a person or corporation pledges money or property as bail for the appearance of an incarcerated individual involved in a court action.

All incarcerated individual bonds are conducted through New York State licensed bail bond agents.

Incarcerated Individuals who are housed at the Orleans County Jail cannot make the arrangements for bond. All inmate bonds must be facilitated by a person who is not currently incarcerated.

Various bond agent contact information is available in the front lobby or may be provided by contacting the Orleans County Jail by telephone at (585)-589-4310.

The Orleans County Jail is not responsible for making bond arrangements or soliciting the use of a particular bond agent.
