Board and Legislative Actions

The Orleans County Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board (AFPB) unanimously recommended approval of Orleans County Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1 (District C-1) at its July 6, 2016 regular meeting. On July 27, 2016 the Orleans County Legislature approved District C-1 (for notice and proceedings, refer to Appendix Items 1A, 1B, 2, and 3, respectively) as described herein, following a public hearing held on that same day (7-27-16).

Background

Pursuant to Article 25-AA of New York State Agriculture and Markets Law, Orleans County has established multiple agricultural districts at the request of farmers since 1972 as a demonstration of its commitment to one of the largest industries in the County. The originally established ten districts were consolidated into three districts in 2000, 2001, and 2002 and have been further consolidated into one County-wide district during this review cycle. Among the purposes of these districts are:

1. Identify a specific geographic area in which agricultural operations are expected to remain viable for the next eight years (the minimum amount of time, by statute, before a district can be reviewed and property excluded from its boundaries).
2. Provide right-to-farm protection from nuisance suits for farmers engaged in reasonable agricultural practices as determined, if necessary, by the Commissioner of Agriculture and Markets.
3. Provide some relief from the burden of special service assessments from which the agricultural operator does not benefit.

At the same time the districts were being consolidated, they were being modified through the eight-year review process. Due to increased administrative efficiency, and without any loss of agricultural protection, consolidations have become commonplace in Upstate New York Counties and Orleans County is the second to consolidate county-wide. A further benefit of consolidation is to improve the ease of the review process for landowners with lands across multiple districts. Pursuant to State Agriculture and Markets policy, one existing agricultural district, at the County's discretion, must become the parent for setting the date of subsequent eight-year anniversary reviews. District C-1 shall use the most recent anniversary date for the former Agricultural District No. 1, which is December 2, 2016. Accordingly, the figures used in the Environmental Assessment Form (see Appendix Item 5) pertain to Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1 in existing form as modified resultant of this consolidation.

Methodology

In January 2016, the County sent notices to landowners with parcel holdings meeting the following criteria:

1. Land enrolled in an existing agricultural district.
2. Land receiving an agricultural value assessment but hitherto not enrolled in an agricultural district.

The notices explained the benefits and limitations of inclusion in agricultural districts. The benefits were previously described and will thus not be repeated here; one primary limitation for property owners is that most new or extended municipal water lines built since approximately 1992 through agricultural districts with federal United States Department of Agriculture funding have lateral restrictions placed on them via resolution by municipal governments. Such restrictions allow agricultural operations and any existing structures to connect to the municipal water line upon demand. However, so that the consequence of waterline infrastructure expansion is not the speculative partitioning of lots and removal of land from agricultural production, no newly constructed residences or other non-farm uses can connect to a lateral-restricted water line through an agricultural district until the district is up for review and the property formally removed from the agricultural district.

In February 2016, the County sent press releases to both the Orleans Hub, a digital newspaper serving the County, and the Batavia Daily News to alert landowners that the eight-year review process was underway. This press release provided a brief outline of the program and contact information for further explanation.

Included in the January 2016 notice to landowners was a table that listed, by tax parcel identification number, all of the known, relevant holdings of that landowner (See Appendix Item 7). Landowners were given the option to list additional parcels for inclusion and also to exclude specific parcels by striking them out on the Letter of Intent. By signing this form, checking the appropriate box, and submitting the document to the Orleans County Department of Planning and Development as instructed in the notice, the landowners were reaffirming their intent to remain in an agricultural district. Since 2000, landowners have been required to actively reaffirm their interest in remaining in an agricultural district and that policy has remained intact throughout this review process. Alternatively, landowners had the opportunity to indicate their preference to be excluded from an agricultural district by checking the box indicating NO and submitting the signed Letter of Intent to the Orleans County Department of Planning and Development. The effect of not returning the Letter of Intent was the omission of land, in its entirety, from Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1. This method has proved an effective way to ensure that landowners are aware of their status in an agricultural district and that their enrollment or exclusion is a reflection of current intent and not a relic of a previous landowner. Landowners who included parcels through the annual enrollment process, over the last seven years, were also in receipt of the above stated mailings and followed the same process as all other landowners contacted.

In March 2016, the County took measures to further alert landowners of the ongoing eight-year review by distributing a second mailing. This mailing was segmented into three targets: confirmed enrollees, confirmed exclusions, and those landowners who had not yet indicated their preference. Included in this mailing was notice of the July 27th Public Hearing as well as an April 11th workshop at the Albion Library. This workshop was held by County staff to explain the process in greater detail and answer any questions landowners might have. It was at this time that a legal notice was posted in the Batavia Daily News (Appendix Item 4) announcing the commencement of the thirty (30) day comment period.

In June 2016, the County made a third and final attempt to alert landowners of the ongoing eight-year review. This third mailing was distributed only to those landowners who had not yet responded to earlier attempts. All of the aforementioned mailings included a map of existing Agricultural Districts in Orleans County.

After the AFPB met on July 6th and with the public hearing date approaching, County staff and AFPB members made a final attempt at outreach via telephone and personal contact to major operators who had hitherto not responded.

Character of the Revised District

Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1 contains 2,365 parcels on 115,518.5 acres (see Map 1 and Table 1)¹. This is an increase of 9,788.3 acres from the existing districts (See Figure 1 for details). This gain can be attributed in part to those landowners who had been receiving an agricultural value assessment, independently of enrollment of an agricultural district, and have now opted into the program.

Acres Enrolled Post-AFPB Meeting	2,964.7	N/A	N/A
Parcels Excluded ²	64	N/A	N/A
Parcels Omitted ³	199	N/A	N/A

¹In Table 1, those office of Real Property Tax Services codes numbered 100 through 199 are agricultural, 200 through 299 residential, and 300 through 399 vacant.

² Parcels Excluded represents parcels marked for deletion from District C-1 as indicated by a signed Letter of Intent.

³ Parcels Omitted refers to parcels that were removed from District C-1 in lieu of any returned Letter of Intent.

Figure 2, on the following page, illustrates the distribution of District C-1 by municipality. The largest concentration of acreage is in the Town of Barre, accounting for 18% of District C-1, followed by the Town of Ridgeway at 14.9%. The Villages of Albion and Holley contain no land within District C-1 while the Villages of Medina and Lyndonville each contain a small (less than 300 acres) amount of land in District C-1. This is not unusual and follows past agricultural district distribution trends.

Municipality	Acres	Number of Parcels	% District (acres)
Town of Albion	5,741.47	111	5.0%
Town of Barre	20,926.63	429	18.1%
Town of Carlton	12,908.51	242	11.2%
Town of Clarendon	8,475.94	269	7.3%
Town of Gaines	10,323.91	185	8.9%
Town of Kendall	9,672.27	264	8.4%
Town of Murray	2,705.76	62	2.3%
Town of Ridgeway	17,249.82	349	14.9%
Town of Shelby	14,867.10	300	12.9%
Town of Yates	12,256.41	125	10.6%
Village of Albion	0.00	0	0.0%
Village of Holley	0.00	0	0.0%
Village of Lyndonville	254.80	18	0.2%
Village of Medina	135.86	11	0.1%
District C-1 Total	115,518.48	2,365	100.0%

The Town of Murray contains the lowest percentage of land in District C-1 (excluding Villages) as has historically been the case. It is the County's understanding that the comparatively low enrollment rate in Murray is a matter of preference of some major agricultural landowners who prefer to maximize their available options with regard to future land use.

As indicated in Figure 3, 68.4% District C-1 consists of viable farmland (agricultural land was calculated by adding acreage for parcels with assessment land use codes 100 through 199).² The 68.4% is considered a conservative number, as there may also be some viable farmland on parcels classified by assessors as vacant land or as year-round residences of at least 10 acres.

Land Use	Acres	% District (Acres)
Agricultural	79,003.2	68.4%
Residential	30,570.8	26.5%
Vacant	4,360.4	3.8%
All Others	1,584.1	1.4%

To further make the point, residential lots of at least 10 acres account for 8,262.2 acres in the residential land use category. In any event, the 68.4% more than complies with § 303.4 of Article 25AA of Agricultural and Markets Law, which stipulates that an agricultural district “...shall, to the extent feasible, include adjacent viable farm lands, and exclude, to the extent feasible, nonviable farmland and non-farm land.”

Of the previously enrolled parcels, 64 have opted for exclusion from District C-1. It is surmised that the losses are due in part to one or more of the following phenomena:

1. Uncertainty about the future of the agricultural industry as it continues to be impacted by international trade policies and international markets.
2. The expected benefits of lateral-restricted farmland for another eight years may not be perceived to exceed the loss of potential economic opportunity from the sale of land enhanced by non-farm development by installation of waterline infrastructure.
3. The “free rider” effect: the perception that as long as some portion of a municipality is in an agricultural district, all farm operators in that municipality might benefit from hesitancy by the municipality, due to administrative complexity, in enacting anti-farm nuisance laws that would attempt to distinguish farm operations who are not in agricultural districts from those farm operators who are in agricultural districts.

4. With the statutory changes that allow annual enrollment into agricultural districts, there is less urgency by owners to commit during eight-year anniversary reviews, as the consequences of indecision are not as great.

Character of Existing Districts

The existing districts had boundaries rather similar to those of the C-1 District. Due to the widespread extension of public water lines throughout the County, lateral restrictions have been placed on the vast majority of new water improvement districts through agricultural districts in Orleans County. These restrictions have been in place since 1992. Landowners have been informed of the potential impact these restrictions can have on their land interests and have been advised to carefully consider whether inclusion is in their best interest. Furthermore, landowners were also made aware that the opportunity to exclude land from an agricultural district was only available during this eight-year review and that doing so would remove an encumbrance pertaining to public water lines on the property.

Growth Inducing Factors

County-wide population growth is projected at 4.5%, from 2010-2020 according to projections prepared by the Genesee/Finger Lakes Regional Planning Council (Figure 4). As of August 2016, the County has experienced 0.26% of that growth. Clarendon and Murray, both abutting Monroe County, have experienced growth of approximately five percentage points each and are forecasted to continue this growth trend into the next decade. This projected growth rate is in direct correlation to these towns' proximity to Monroe County and the Rochester metropolitan area. As indicated in Appendix Item 6, the overall acreage of District C-1 has increased although the total land in farms has actually decreased by 2,357.8 acres. It is surmised that this decrease is due to the conversion of property with an agricultural land use code (100-199) to a classification of 240 or "rural residential with acreage". These parcels are year-round residences consisting of 10 or more acres and therefore can still include farmland through this reclassification. A sizeable amount of land with the 240 classification is believed to be rented to farmers.

Infrastructure and Land Use

Water line expansion into rural areas has largely been accomplished through agricultural districts in Orleans County. With the exception of Barre, most towns and/or villages have extensive waterline infrastructure within their borders. Landowners were made aware that their inclusion in an agricultural district would trigger a lateral restriction on any water line, for a new non-farm structure, for the duration of eight years.

A majority of the zoning in District C-1 bears the Residential/Agricultural (RA) designation. In fact, of the 2,365 parcels enrolled only 52 intersect a zoning district other than the aforementioned. These areas remain suitable for inclusion due to the allowance of agriculture, in some form, in many of the zoning districts throughout the County.

Future non-farm development throughout the County over the next eight years is anticipated to be primarily single-family, detached homes in low densities. This assumption is based on past trends and building permit data.

Recommendations

District C-1 as proposed has a high content of agricultural land uses and is expected to remain viable and dynamic for the next eight years, meeting the criteria for certification in Agricultural Districting Law. Keeping with the County tradition of honoring agricultural landowner requests for inclusion or exclusion, the Orleans County Legislature, upon review of the reports of the AFPB and after receiving input at the public hearing, recommends that District C-1 be approved as modified in the form illustrated in the accompanying map and boundary description.

Reconciling Consolidated District No. 1 and Map Boundary Description

Precautions have been taken to assure that the District C-1 Map and Boundary Description (i.e. list of parcels) are congruent. Nevertheless, District C-1 contains thousands of parcels. In the event of a discrepancy, it is policy of the Department of Agriculture and Markets that the Boundary Description shall be considered the accurate record.

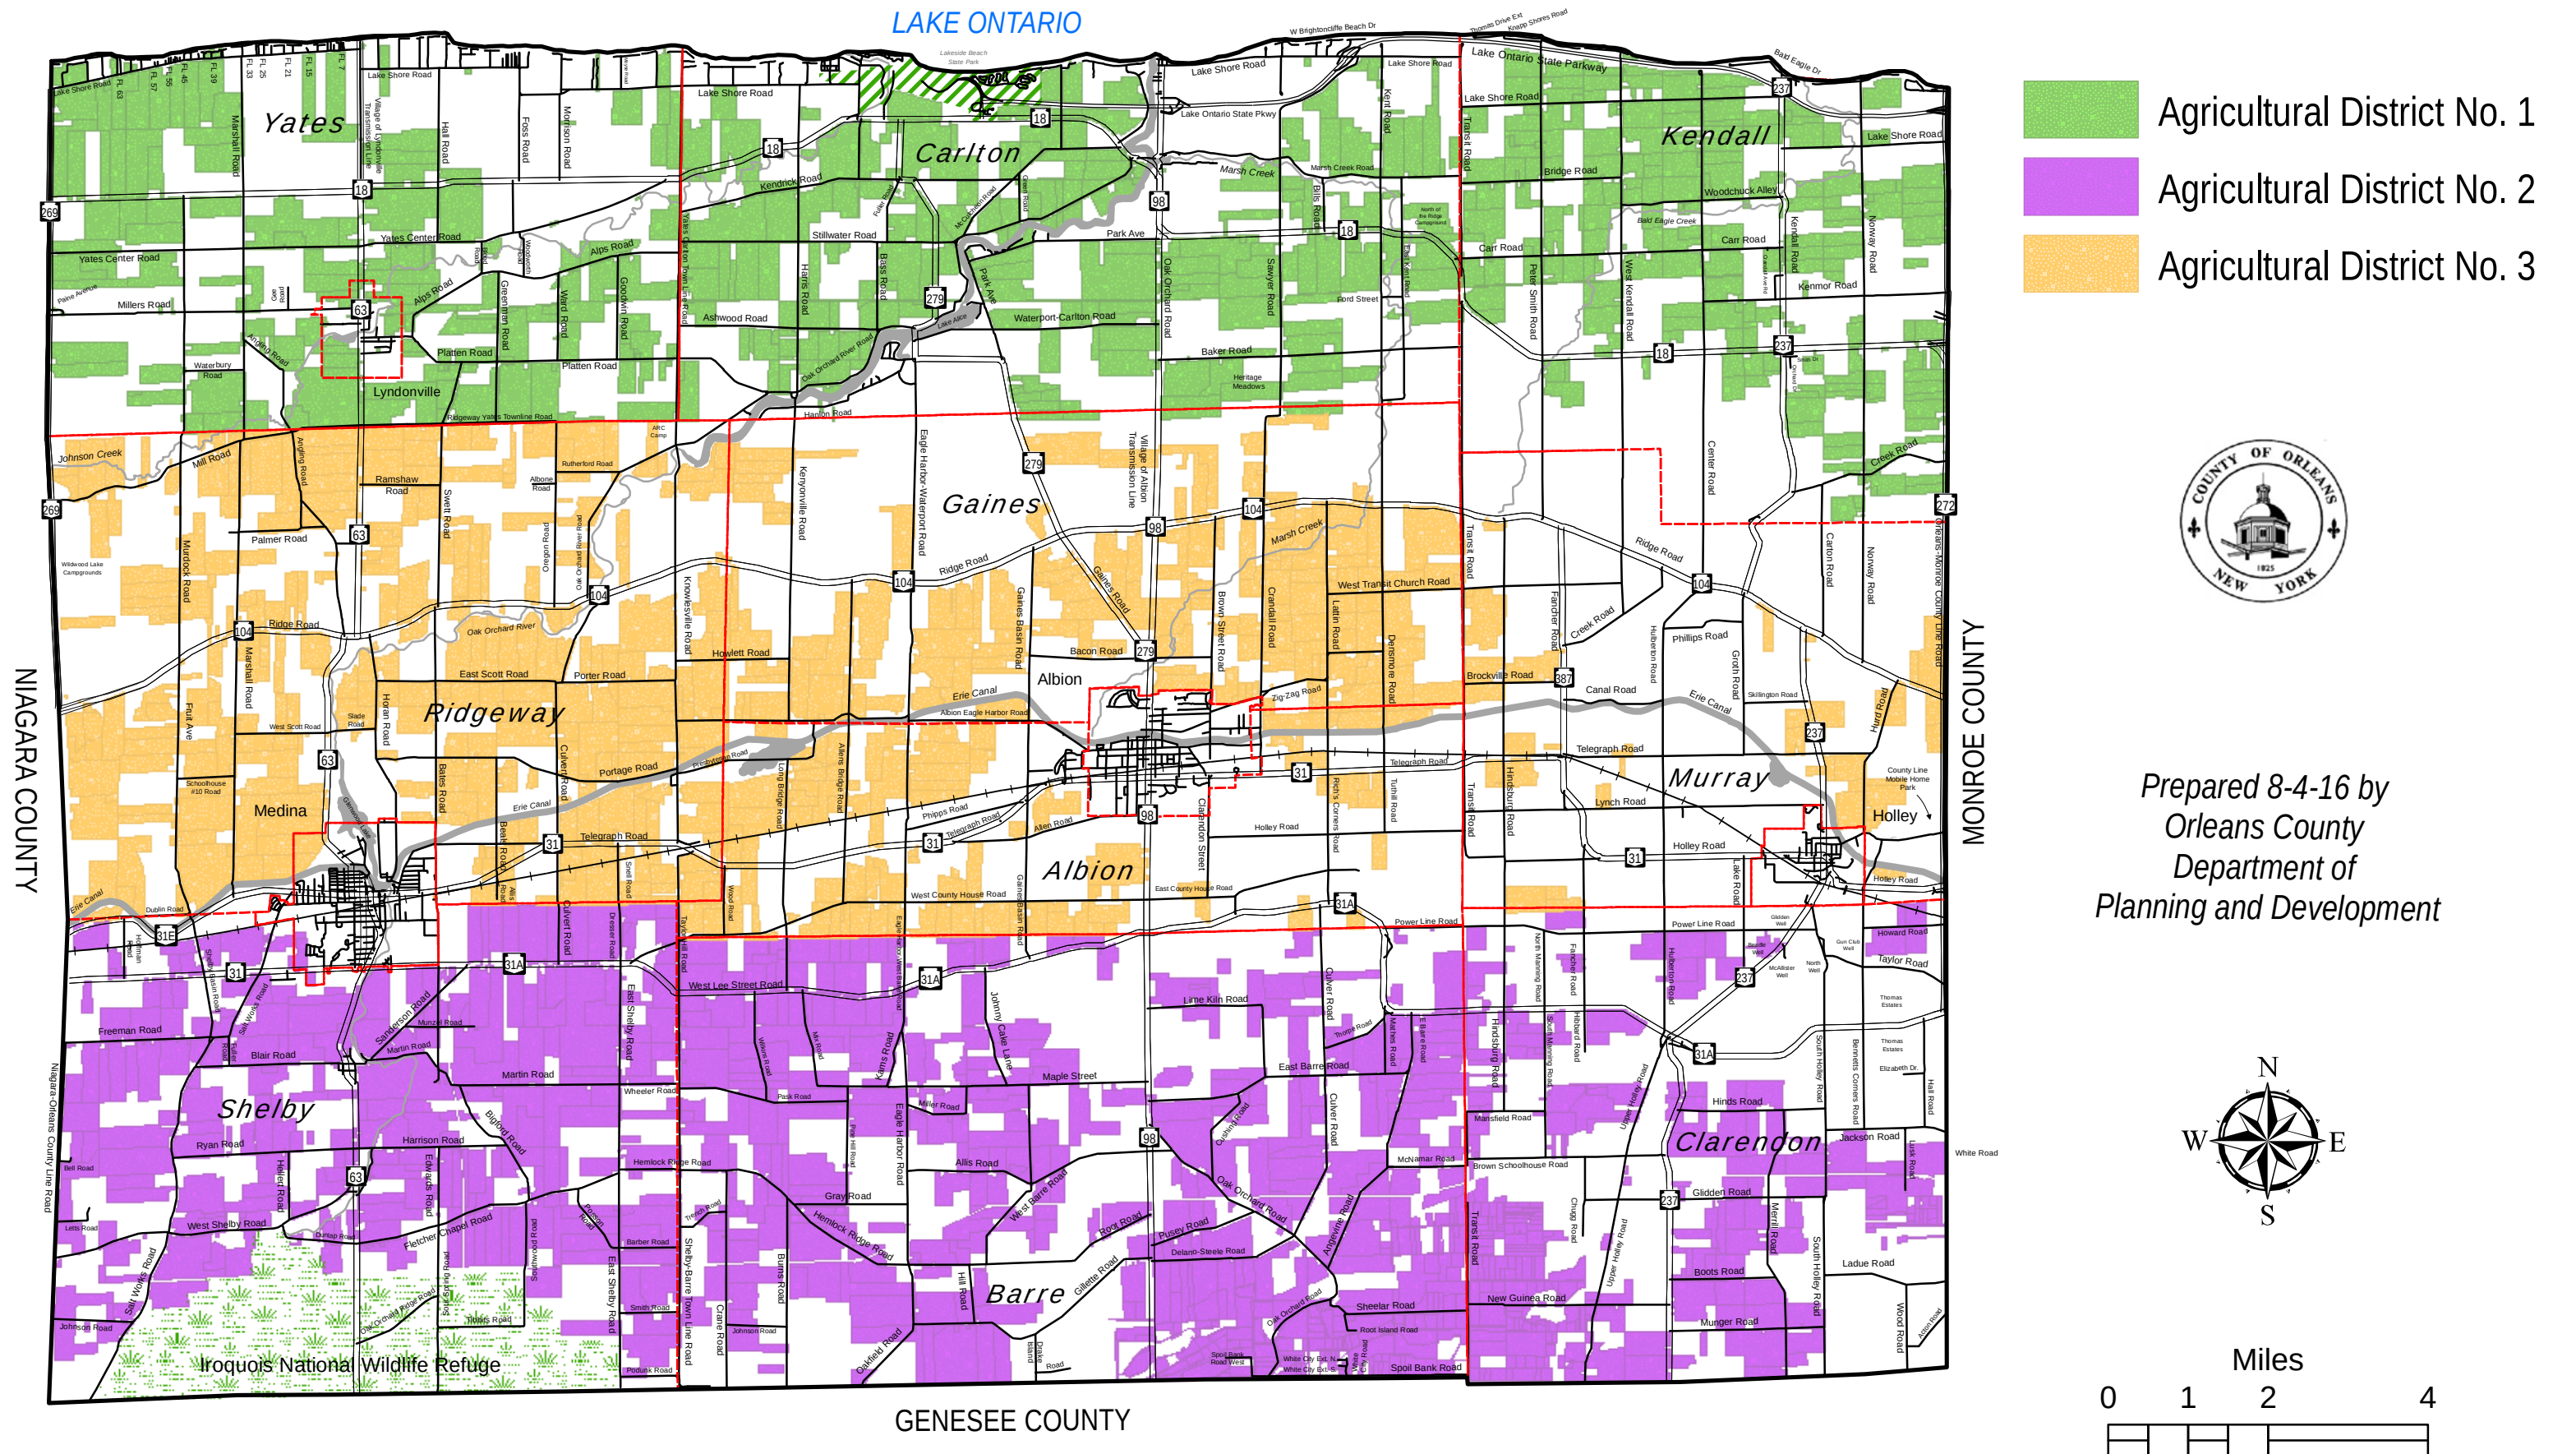

Maintenance of Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1 Between Eight-Year Review

Upon the certification of District C-1 by the Department of Agriculture and Markets the Director of the Orleans County Office of Real Property Tax Services will update the ORPS real property databases as they pertain to agricultural districts. The County will remind municipal assessors of its dependence upon them to maintain accurate and up-to-date records that reflect the boundaries of District C-1. Their files will be the critical contact information that will be relied upon when the next review of District C-1 commences in another eight years.

PUBLIC HEARING
ORLEANS COUNTY LEGISLATURE
July 27, 2016
Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1
Modifications after Eight-Year Review
4:15 p.m.

Present: David Callard, Chairman; John DeFilipps, Lynne Johnson, Fred Miller., Legislators; David Schubel, County Attorney; Charles H. Nesbitt, Jr., Chief Administrative Officer; James Bensley, Director - Orleans County Planning Department; Barry Flansburg, Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board. Absent: Donald, Allport; William Eick and Kenneth DeRoller; Legislators.

James Bensley distributed the Agricultural District map incorporating all of the parcels requested to remain in or be placed in the Consolidated Agricultural District No. 1

Barry Flansburg, Chairman of the Orleans County Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board, reported that by county law, the Ag Districts of the county are up for renewal every eight years. Mr. Flansburg stated that the map that is before them are the parcels that have signed up. Going back over ten years ago we had ten Ag Districts in Orleans County. In working with the Ag and Farmland Protection Board and the Orleans County Planning Department this process is completed every eight years for each district. Back ten to twelve years ago, a plan was developed to gradually consolidate all of these districts so the work load of contacting the property owners and going through this process would be simplified each year. We went from ten down to three Ag Districts; and then had the three Ag Districts all come up for renewal at the same time in 2016. Now we have consolidated all of the Ag Districts into one Ag District that will only come up for mass renewal every eight years. With this said, Mr. Flansburg on behalf of the Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board, wanted to go on record in thanking Mr. James Bensley for all of his work and long range planning in getting this project accomplished. Mr. Flansburg stated that his hard work will make this more efficient. We are very proud of that each year as the Ag Districts have renewed there is more land in the Ag Districts in Orleans County than there were twelve years ago. Chairman Callard stated he always thought this was a smart idea and can't take the credit for this. Mr. Flansburg indicated that Jim Bensley gets all of the credit because he has done all of the work, and to Sarah Gatti coming on to help, really helped complete this big project.

Jim Bensley stated that we have retained acreage from the last three districts that have been combined. We are now above that, having 9.26% inclusion above what was previously included in the Ag Districts. We have 115,000 acres, 2,300 parcels however since the Ag and Farmland Protection board meeting, which they met on July 6th, there was another 2,900 acres added. That was the resolution that the Ag and Farmland Protection board passed approving the district as they saw it on July 6th along with any additions that would come in after their meeting. Mr. Bensley indicated that they are very happy with the way it all came together and technology made it easier to do. It will be much easier for the farmers as a consolidated district because they no longer have to break up their farm operations which could stretch across our entire county in those past three districts. Now we just have to bother them once and provide them with a list of all of their agricultural holdings and then they can decide if they want to continue with any or all of the parcels into the Ag District.

Mr. Bensley said that this project has gone smoother than what they had planned for and are ahead of the game in getting this district completed. He stated that there is a resolution on today's agenda to approve the district, and then upon adoption it gets sent to NYS Ag and Markets in Albany. They then have to sign off on it which could take up to a couple of months. We are looking at October when we may receive certification that the Ag District has been approved by the State of New York.

Before the floor was opened for public comment, Chairman Callard requested Clerk Hanlon to read the official Public Hearing notice that was published in the legal newspaper.

Chairman Callard, with the explanation provided earlier by both Mr. Flansburg and Mr. Bensley, he opened the floor for public comment:

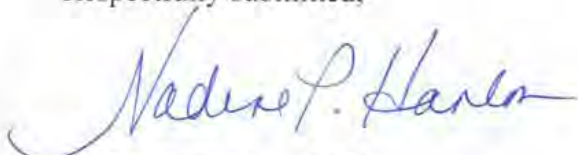

Bruce Schmidt, Gaines, asked if this is a county-wide Ag District or are certain portions of the county exempt from being included in the countywide Ag District. Mr. Bensley stated that inclusion in the Ag District is always an owner's option. It is grassroots oriented. There are properties in the Ag District located in the Village of Medina and Village of Lyndonville because those lands are being farmed in the village lines and the property owners want to be in the Ag District. Mr. Bensley explained that we don't exclude anyone nor do we mandate anyone either.

Mr. Schmidt stated that it is not a total county Ag District, that there are certain portions of land not included in it. Mr. Bensley agreed and showed the map to Mr. Schmidt. Mr. Flansburg indicated that the green areas on the map are the parcels that the property owners who responded to the eight year request and want their property included in the Ag District. The property owner needed to complete a paper and submit with what they wanted included in the district.

Mr. Schmidt asked if towns and villages are exempt with the exception of what was mentioned. Mr. Flansburg, answered no and stated that it is not up to the municipalities, it is up to the property owner to be in an Ag District. Mr. Schmidt asked if the entire Village of Albion is included in the county-wide Ag District. Mr. Bensley and Mr. Flansburg stated no and Mr. Bensley explained that it would only be individual parcels that might be farmed in the Village. Mr. Flansburg further explained that these are not actions taken by the municipalities, but are actions taken by the individual parcel owners. It then places their land in the Ag District under the protection of Ag and Markets Law by the owner declaring that they would like their property in the Ag District. Once their property is in the Ag District, it is included in that district for eight years. Once every year we have an open enrollment period in the month of June in which if you did not enroll now, during that period next year in June you can include it in the Ag District. To take your parcel out, that can only occur once every eight years. Every July a Public Hearing will be held to review inclusions as allowed yearly, stated Mr. Flansburg.

Chairman called three times for any other questions, with their being no further comments. Chairman Callard declared the Public Hearing closed at 4:27 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

Nadine P. Hanlon, Clerk
Orleans County Legislature
