FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

The Park Ridge Police Department is investigating a report of a piece of Halloween candy that was discovered as having a needle inside of it. On Tuesday morning, November 8th, 2022, the complainant reported that their child bit into a York Peppermint Patty when she found a needle inside. The needle is a small, sewing needle. The piece of candy was obtained during Halloween trick or treating on October 31st and is described as a small, fun size, York Peppermint Patty with a Halloween themed spider web graphic on the wrapper.

The area where the candy had been obtained during trick or treating is within the following residential area located on the northwest side of Park Ridge:

From North to South: Manor to Walnut
From East to West: Parkside to Dee

See attached map with highlighted area.

The Park Ridge Police Department continues to investigate this incident and asks that anyone with information to contact us at 847-318-5252. Residents are also asked to inspect their children's Halloween candy.
