The City of Perrysburg income tax ordinance, tax forms and instructions are available online at the Tax Division web pages on the city's website at www.ci.perrysburg.oh.us.

April 18, 2023 is the deadline to:

- File 2022 tax return and pay any balance due.
- File 2022 Federal extension form, if applicable, and submit extension payment if tax is due.
- Submit 2023 first quarter estimated tax payment.

Residents who lived in Perrysburg the entire year and whose sole source of taxable income consists of wages reported on a W-2 may use Form EZ or e-file at www.ci.perrysburg.oh.us. Note that e-filed returns are not considered valid until finalized in the e-file module and documentation of all reported income is uploaded to the Tax Division via the e-file website.

- All residents are required to file a city return, whether or not tax is due. If you do not have taxable income and you receive a notice to file, please contact the tax office.
- Carefully read all instructions. Complete all applicable information in the upper portion of the return.
- Indicate whether you own or rent your residence. If you rent, provide the name and address of your landlord.
- In most cases, married couples should file a joint return with the city even if they file separately with the IRS.
- If your marital status has changed, if you have retired, or if you have moved in or have moved out of the city, notify the tax office in writing with the effective date of the change. Notice can be made on the annual return (include a brief statement about the change) or you may fax or email notification of any changes.
- A late filing penalty of $25.00 is charged per month (maximum penalty of $150.00) for filing your return after the due date.
