

We're Here For You...Virtually!

*Let us be your calm in the storm
So that no one faces cancer alone*

During this health emergency, Cancer Support Community Central NJ (CSCCNJ) is providing social and emotional support to individuals and families impacted by a cancer diagnosis at no charge through virtual and teleconference platforms.

Here is how we can help:

If you or someone you know is affected by cancer, we can help with the following programs and services, all at no charge to participants:

- Psychosocial support to individuals affected by cancer, including those in bereavement.
- Age-and culturally-appropriate support in both English and Spanish, along with interventions to reduce distress and improve coping skills.
- Navigation and referral to resources that address unmet needs due to a cancer diagnosis and/or as a result of the current COVID-19 health emergency
- Financial assistance for families dealing with a pediatric cancer.

If you or someone you know is affected by cancer and you are seeking individual and/or group support; bereavement support, or you want to talk with someone because of the current COVID-19 situation, call Katherine Schaible at 908-658-5400 x4
