

2023 Grant Opportunities for Plainfield's Cultural and Heritage Organizations and for Individuals.

Do you or your organization have an idea for a project, event, presentation, performance, etc. that will have an impact on Plainfield residents/audiences?

Organizations: you can apply if:

- your project focus is Arts, Cultural, or Heritage, and
- you have 501(c) (3) designation, and
- you have a 2023 Plainfield based project/event.

Individuals: Mini-grant Opportunities up to $500.

Categories for grants and mini grants include: arts, crafts, language, music, writing, literature, photography, film, and history/social research. A project could entail performing arts, documentaries, exhibits, research projects, education, or publications. Can be virtual/remote projects. This is a reimbursement grant.

Submission deadlines: the 10th of the month on a monthly basis prior to project date. Ex: applications for projects taking place in March 2023 should be submitted no later than 2/10/23. Exceptions: July, August, September, applications due by 6/10/23. November, December 2023, and January 2024 project applications due by 10/10/23.

To access application materials, guidelines, and instructions go to:

https://www.plainfieldnj.gov/residents/art_history_and_culture/plainfield_cultural_and_heritage_commission/index.php

City of Plainfield Cultural and Heritage Commission:

Supporting & promoting cultural and heritage activities benefitting Plainfield and its residents.