The City of Plainfield Invites you to Celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month!

The City of Plainfield is thrilled to announce this year's Hispanic Heritage Month Celebration. Plainfield's Hispanic/Latino(a)/LatinX community are a significant part of our City's population. Enriching our Queen City with a diversity of Hispanic cultures. Throughout our vibrant city, you will encounter a wealth of Spanish cultures ranging from the Caribbean to Northern, Central, and South America.

Don't miss out on the festivities; come out this Friday, October 8, 2021, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at The Black Lives Matter Plaza (City Hall, 515 Watchung Ave, NJ)

The event will include a plethora of exciting activities that cater to all our community members. Featuring live performances by Plainfield's talented youth, dance lessons, free food and refreshments, COVID-19 vaccination and much more. In addition, the City of Plainfield will have its third Plainfield Wins lottery drawing where four (4) lucky individuals will be chosen to receive five thousand dollars ($5000) each, twenty-thousand dollars (20k) collectively. The event promises attendees many opportunities to learn about the cultures of our Hispanic brothers and sisters.

"As a multicultural community, The City of Plainfield seeks to honor and promote the importance of celebrating our diversity and uniting our community.," said Mayor Adrian O. Mapp. "We embrace our Hispanic/Latino(a)/LatinX community members; because of their impactful role within Queen City, we continue to enjoy, learn, and maintain the cultural wealth of our City."
