

Public Comment

The Mayor opened the Public Comment Session.

Mr. David Moorhouse a resident of 210 Commonwealth Street, Randleman NC addressed the Board and the topic of his comment was Christian Orientation in the Randleman Community.

He stated that he was grateful that the City had placed "In God We Trust" on the chamber dais, building, and Police vehicles. It was his contention that it should read "In Christ We Trust".

Mr. Jeff Freeman, Randleman Chamber of Commerce Director, updated the Board on the following upcoming events sponsored by the Chamber:

August 24 th , 2018	Lunch to go
September 18 th , 2018	Fall Cash Draw Down
October 13 th , 2018	NASCAR Day
December 6 th , 2018	Christmas with the Embers

Mr. Freeman finished by requesting funds from the City to help finance the following initiatives (marketing materials):

$5,000.00	Billboard
$2,500.00	Promotional Materials
$4,000.00	Relocation/Visitors Guide

A motion to close the Public Comment Session was made by Alderwoman Blalock seconded by Alderman Fogleman and unanimously approved.

Non-Profit Fee Waiver Consideration

Reverend Kay Fry with the Mt. Lebanon UMC submitted an application for Board approval. She is requesting the use of the Randleman Civic Center on Tuesday nights beginning on September 11th and continuing thru November 13th, 2018.

The program "What is Faithful Families" has been accepted as a practice tested intervention by the Center of Excellence for Training and Research Translation at UNC Chapel Hill.

Reverend Fry has followed the Board required procedures established with the Non-Profit Fee Waiver policy approved by the Board at the June 5th, 2018 Board of Aldermen meeting.

Alderman Betts added that this program was open to all denominations and done thru the network of area churches in conjunction with the Randleman Ministerial Association.

A motion to approve the waiver was made by Alderwoman Blalock seconded by Alderwoman Henderson and unanimously approved.
