CHIEF OF POLICE

Press Release

For Immediate Release

August 18, 2020

Randleman Police arrest man who they say intentionally neglected to feed and care for his two dogs.

Dwight Daniel Kronenberg Jr., 25, of Randleman, N.C., was arrested on Saturday, August 15 and charged with two counts of misdemeanor cruelty to animals and rabies vaccination violation.

Kronenberg was taken to the Randolph County Jail where he received a $2,500 unsecured bond. Kronenberg will appear in court on August 24.

Randleman Police took custody of the dogs and immediately took them to Lakeview Veterinary Hospital for emergency care.

On August 15, Randleman Police located the emaciated dogs while on an unrelated call at 1224 S. Main Street in Randleman. The dogs were living in separate fenced kennels with no food and the ground in the kennels consisting of mud and feces.

Both dogs were still in the care of Lakeview Animal Hospital at the time of the press release.
