DON'T HOST A SUPERBOWL SUPERSPREADER EVENT!

The Red Cliff Community Health Medical/Public Health teams ask that the community refrain from hosting or attending Superbowl parties this weekend. While the Covid-19 numbers are declining, now is not the time to invite people over to watch the game. Gatherings such as this have the potential to cause exponential spread of the virus.

Dr. Anthony Fauci says when it comes to Super Bowl parties during the pandemic, people should “just lay low and cool it.” (Chicago Sun Times, 2021)
