OPENING PRAYER

Opening prayer and words by James Pete.

WELCOME

Chairman Bainbridge welcomed those in attendance and welcomed the incoming Council members.

OATH OF OFFICE

Chairman Bainbridge introduced Chief Judge Steven Boulley.

Chief Judge Boulley administers the oath of office to the newly elected At-Large members: Carolyn Gouge, Nicholas DePerry and Dan Duffy. Each At-Large member took a moment to thank the community for their support in this year's election.

The oath of office was administered to the newly elected Tribal Treasurer Johanna Wilson. She thanked the community for their support and was honored for the opportunity to serve.

Chairman Peterson was sworn in by Chief Judge Boulley. He expressed his appreciation to the community and acknowledged the great work of the current and outgoing Council members. He encouraged all outgoing members to continue to be involved.

Proceedings briefly recessed while the new Council members signed their oaths of office.

COMMENTS BY OUTGOING/INCOMING COUNCIL

Gifts were presented to Chris Boyd, Steven Boyd and outgoing Chairman Bainbridge. All expressed their appreciation to the current Council and community.

Chairman Bainbridge spoke of his six years devoted to the Tribal Council and states he humbly steps down and wishes success to Chairman Peterson.

HONOR SONG

Honor song by Buffalo Bay Singers.

Nathan Gordon moved to adjourn. Seconded by Jeanne Gordon. Motion carried.

Adjourned at 11:40 a.m.

A feast was provided to the community.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED:
