Boozhoo!

We hope that the cooler weather is getting everyone excited for a little snow! As the leaves fall and the season changes it is easy to ignore the beauty around us. Take a little time to appreciate how lucky we are to live in a place where we get to watch the earth shed its summer heat and get ready to settle in for a much-needed rest.

The cooler weather also brings with it all kinds of extra gear like snow pants, hats, gloves and of course jackets. While it is important for us to have heavy winter coats to stay warm, they can be dangerous when being worn under a seat belt in a vehicle, especially for our littlest ones. Car seats and jackets do not mix! Even a child who is strapped into their seat tightly is not fully protected. The jacket does not allow for a tight fit. Try this, put your child in their seat wearing their jacket and tighten the straps. Now, take them out but do not adjust the straps. Take off their jacket and buckle them back in, again, do not adjust the straps. Check to see how much slack is in the harness. It is very likely that there is more than a finger width of space between your child and their harness. Take jackets and snow suits off before buckling in any seat (even adults should not wear a jacket while in the car). Put a blanket on your child if they are cold or put their jacket on backwards after they are buckled.

Remember 4 inches matter: a puffy coat adds as much as 4 inches of slack to car seat harness straps. Imagine how loose your pants would be if you added four inches to the waist. A loose car-seat harness greatly increases the risk of injury to your child.

If you want any other information on car seat safety, please reach out to Jenny here at the ECC at ext. 2533 or visit Safe Kids Wisconsin website. Please stay safe and warm!!

Happy Fall!!

We hope you are staying healthy and safe and that Dagwaagin has been going well while our program has been temporarily shut down. We would like to say Chi-Milgwech for all of your support, patience, flexibility, and understanding during the closure.

During the month of November, we will be focusing on our clothing study. During the study we will investigate what we want to find out about clothes. Where do we get our clothes? How is cloth made? What do we know about clothes? What are the features of clothes? How do we take care of our clothes? How do people make clothes? What special clothes do people where to work? What other special clothes do people wear? We will incorporate the Ojibwe culture and language within our lessons and daily activities.

Please remember to fill out the monthly in-kind form and return it to the center by the last day of each month.

If you have received any paperwork from the center, please fill it out and return it. Our classroom hours are 7:45 to 3:00pm.

REMEMDERS
As the weather turns colder and the rain turns to snow, we will need to wear warmer clothes to play outside. Please remember we are outside as much as we can, and winter outer clothing is needed to keep your child warm. We will be working on the Clothes study for Teaching Strategies and in Talking About Touching we will focus on the Fire Safety section.

Parent Teacher Conferences are this month! We will be contacting you to set up a date and time.

Important dates:
November 11 Closed for Veteran's day
November 17 Picture Day for Head Start
November 18 Picture Day for Early Head Start
November 22-26 Closed for Fall Break

We will be talking with the children about things to be thankful for in their lives.

We would like to say Thank you to all the Veterans and have a wonderful Fall Break!

LITERACY AT HOME
Going on a Picture Walk: Have your child pick out a book at home or at the library to read. Before you read the book, look at each picture and make predictions about what might be happening in the story. When you make a prediction, point out what clues you saw in the picture that made you think that. Then read the story aloud to your child. As you read talk about if your predictions were right. After you read the story, take another picture walk, this time have your child retell the story to you using the pictures in the book.

MATH AT HOME
I See, You See Shapes Around the House: There are many shapes in everyday places such as around the house. Play I see, you see shapes around your house. Start by saying a shape and object you see and then ask what same shape and new object they see. For example: “I see a door that looks like a rectangle, what rectangle do you see?” Student says, “I see a rectangle tv, what rectangle do you see?” Take turns finding different shapes around the house.

TAKING CARE OF ME AT HOME
I Can Blow My Nose: As we enter the season of sniffles, students need help in learning when and how to wipe/blow their own nose. Talk with students about when to wipe and blow their nose such as when they sneeze or when it is stuffy or runny. Then teach them the steps to do it themselves. Practice getting a Kleenex, wiping/blowing nose until nose is clean, throwing Kleenex away and washing hands. This important skill helps students learn to take care of their own bodies and prevent the spread of germs.

November Themes
Clothes, Being thankful
What's happening this month.......

Family Service will begin to contact families to see what kind of assistance and resources they can provide. Family Service can help families set goals, find resources, get connected to services and anything that could help.

What does a health screen at ECC entail? How does getting the screen affect my child’s education?

According to the Office of Head Start Performance Standards, all Head Start programs must perform a 45-day screening on each child. Parents sign a consent form at enrollment for the screening to be completed.

The screening includes:

1.) Health screens include height, weight, vision, and hearing.
2.) Developmental screens include fine/gross motor, language, behavioral, social, cognitive, and emotional skills.

These screens, along with family input, help us create an accurate picture of each child. When families share important child information such as: minor/temporary illness, chronic illness, oral health concerns, nutritional concerns/needs, physical activity preferences and sleep patterns, it helps us get to know the whole child. It also helps us start preparing them for a lifetime of learning.

Due to the recent, short-term closure at the ECC, the program was not able to complete all screens within the 45 days. Staff will continue to do the required screenings once classes resume on November 1, 2021. Once all screens are complete, parents will be notified if any concerns are found. The health office or family service office can assist families in addressing concerns if needed.

If you have any questions: Please call the Health Office at 715-779-5030 @ Patt ext. 2556 or Mikayla ext. 2555

School Closing

As you are all aware, the ECC is closed until November 1st. We have staff at the building, but no children. We are trying to make this an easier transition for the families and the children.

The ECC staff is providing activities for the children and families to do at home while they await their return to school.

Please let us know if there is anything you need and we will do our best to help you receive it.

Miigwech for all your patience through this trying time!

Boozhoo Friends and Families!!

We hope you are all staying safe and healthy. We are doing our best here at the ECC to keep everybody safe and healthy.

Education and Abilities and Social Emotional Support Team
Puffy coats and car seats

Puffy winter coats affect how the harness in a car seat fits your child. The extra coat padding makes it hard to get the harness to fit correctly. The harness might feel snug, but the extra material will compress in a crash, making the harness too loose. Loose harness straps means your child will not be safe in a crash.

How to know if a coat is safe

Here’s a simple way to check whether your child’s coat is safe to wear underneath a harness:

Step 1: Put the coat on your child.

Step 2: Sit them in the car seat. Buckle and tighten the harness.

Step 3: Without loosening the harness, unblock it, and remove your child from the car seat.

Step 4: Take the coat off.

Step 5: Strap your child back into the car seat without adjusting the straps. If the harness is too loose, the coat is too thick to wear under the harness.

Tips for bundling up

- Put your child in thin, warm layers like fleece.
- After the child is snug in the car seat harness, layer blankets over the top of the harness, or put the coat on backward over the arms and shoulders.
- For older children in booster seats, buckle the seatbelt, then put the coat on backward over the arms and shoulders.

Four inches matter

A puffy coat adds four inches of slack to car seat harness straps. Imagine how loose your pants would be if you added four inches to the waist. A loose car-seat harness greatly increases the risk of injury to your child.

Proper fit is the key to safety.
Small Hands Crafting
Cut the sides of a paper plate in an inward curve. Paint the pieces cut off green. Glue them to the top of the plate, sandwiching your green pieces to make leaves. Then have your kids paint their plates like an apple core. They can each choose how many seeds they would like to paint. Encourage them to paint different numbers.
You can then use the seeds in the apples as a visual to count 1-10 and also compare greater than, less than, and equal.

Happy Autumn!

Did you know that the USDA has strengthened nutrition standards for food and beverages served to young children and others in day care settings?

Young children and adults in child care homes and centers who participate in the Child and Adult Care Food Program (CACFP) will now receive meals with more whole grains, a greater variety of vegetables and fruits, and less added sugars and solid fats. The science-based standards introduced in this final rule will elevate the nutritional quality of meals and snacks provided under the CACFP to better align with the Dietary Guidelines for Americans and to be consistent with the meals children receive as part of the National School Lunch Program (NSLP) and School Breakfast Program (SBP).

When your child care provider is a participant of the CACFP, you can be assured that your child is receiving the best nutrition to help them grow.

Apple Relay & Circle Time
Fall is a great time to get outside and apples are the perfect fruit to inspire talks about nutrition while incorporating physical activity. Have an apple relay! Divide the children into teams and establish a finish line. The children will take turns holding an apple and individually running around the finish line and back to their team. The next child in line will be passed the apple and take their turn. Change each round by skipping, hopping, or balancing the apple on a head or hand. Can’t get outside? Try this indoor activity. Everyone knows the chant "Who Took the Cookie from the Cookie Jar?" Change it to "Who Took the Apple from the Apple Tree?" As the children sing the chant, they can pass an apple around the circle. If you can take a field trip to the grocery store in the fall, your kids will be excited to see the many varieties of apples! Which one is the sweetest, most tart? Do they all look the same inside? How many seeds do they have and are they the same color? Investigate together to promote curiosity and interest in healthy foods.

Peanut Butter & Apple Wraps
- 1 whole wheat tortilla (8 inch)
- 1/4 cup peanut butter, reduced-fat
- 2 tablespoons granola cereal
- 1/2 apple, sliced (suggest Red Delicious apple, but could use any variety of apple)

Lay tortilla flat and spread peanut butter over 2/3 of the tortilla leaving edges at sides. Sprinkle 2 Tablespoons granola over peanut butter. Cut apple slices into small chunks and place them on top of the granola. Fold over the edges of the tortilla and roll up "burrito style."
