

EDUCATION & JOB ASSISTANCE

Scholarships

Red Cliff provides various scholarships for its Tribal Members, including the Tribal Council Scholarship and a Native American Scholarship. RC Education also helps connect you with external scholarship opportunities and helps you through the application process.

Job Placement Assistance

Job Placement Assistance helps Red Cliff Tribal Members who have recently been hired to a full time job. This program provides financial assistance to help you KEEP and thrive at your new job. Funds can be used on work-related expenses like new clothing.

Library

Ginanda Gikendaasomin

Ginanda Gikendaasomin "We Seek To Learn" Library offers services to Tribal Members and Tribal Youth. Book checkout, free internet access, and free rides for library patrons. The collection focuses on Native authors and topics. The Library also offers research tools and is a great place to work on a resume or search for a job.

Higher Education Program

Higher Education funding is offered to Red Cliff Tribal Members who have been accepted as a full-time student to a public or private university or college. You can receive up to $3,000 for each academic year, up to 10 semesters. You'll need to maintain a C (2.00) cumulative average. You can do it!

LCOOC Extension

Lac Courte Oreilles Ojibwe College is a non-profit Ojibwe tribal community college. The outreach site in Red Cliff offers four-year Bachelors Degree programs, two-year Associates Degree programs, Certificate programs, and assistance with transferring to a four-year college. LCOOC is not part of the Red Cliff Band. This extension is a partnership between Red Cliff and LCO.

Job Training Program

Funding is offered to RC Tribal Members who have been accepted to a technical, tribal, or community college. You can receive up to $1,800 for each academic year, up to 4 semesters (6 semesters for nursing students). You'll need to maintain a C (2.00) cumulative average. You can do it!
