Red Cliff News & Updates

COVID-19 Community Updates

Various Tribal programs, services, and events have been canceled or temporarily suspended in our efforts to limit the spread of COVID-19.

An up-to-date list of updates and educational resources can be found on the Red Cliff Band website.

New Education and Cultural Preservation Buildings at Cultural Grounds
New buildings will allow community to access services safely

Two new office buildings are being built at the Red Cliff Cultural Grounds in order to house the Education department, Ginanda Gikendaasomin Library, Tribal Historic Preservation Office, and the Native Connections department. The project is scheduled to be completed by mid-October.

The move for these departments comes after community feedback valuing the importance of quality programming related to education and cultural preservation, as well as the need to adhere to proper social distancing protocol and safe environments for community members to access these services during the COVID-19 pandemic.

Other locations were considered; however, it was determined the Cultural Grounds provided the best fit for these two buildings and departments. The Cultural Grounds cover roughly 40 acres. The new buildings will occupy a very small portion of the Cultural Grounds as they are approximately only 36’ x 60’ structures.

One building will have the Education department and will have the library relocated from the Tribal Administration building. The other office building will have Tribal Historic Preservation and the Native Connections department staff.

“We are very happy that the library in Red Cliff will have its own space, which will allow us to share our collection of Native American focused literature, new resources for community members attending online schooling, and spaces with open wireless internet access for our patrons to use,” said Jared Blanche, Education and Library Director. “We look forward to having the Ginanda Gikendaasomin Library being a space for reading, studying, quiet conversations, traditional stories, and community events.”

Native Connections Project Manager Mark Gokee said these buildings are the start of more offerings to the community for maintaining and developing our resilience through Red Cliff culture and teachings. THPO will also be able to provide more cultural preservation activities.

“This facility will afford much needed space to ensure a safe work area and programming for staff and community,” said Marvin Defoe, Tribal Historic Preservation Officer. “This will be a learning place for our community now and into the future.”

The project is being funded by the Department of Treasury CARES Act, and Black Wolf Construction is completing the site work and foundation for the buildings. The actual buildings are being purchased through Sustainable Modular Management.

Contact the Tribal Administration Building with any questions at 715-779-3700.

Tribal Members Urged to Vote in November 3rd Election

Dear Tribal Member:

Tuesday, November 3rd is Election Day for state and federal government races, and we want to ensure that every eligible member of our community can cast their ballot. This letter contains information about how to vote in the 2020 election.

These are the steps you need to take to vote:

1. Register to vote online by October 14th. Website is listed down below. You need a proof of residency document. You can also register to vote at the polls on the day of the election which is November 3, 2020.
2. Vote by mail:
   3. The deadline to request an absentee ballot is October 29th, 2020 at 5:00p.m. However, we strongly encourage you to request your absentee ballot as soon as possible - ideally by October 14th - so that you receive it on time.
   4. Fill out and return your absentee ballot. Your clerk’s office must receive your ballot by November 3rd (Clerk’s contact information is located on the bottom of this letter).
3. OR register and vote in person on Election Day, November 3rd.
Register to Vote
In order to vote, you must first register to vote by providing a proof of residence. This can be 1.) a utility bill, 2.) residential lease, 3.) hunting license, 4.) Conceal Carry license, 5.) paycheck, 6.) IRS check, 7.) bank statement, 8.) student ID and fee receipt, 9.) affidavit from homeless shelter or 10.) driver's license.

You can register to vote until October 14th here: wcv.votewisconsin.com. If you miss this deadline, you can register in person on Election Day when you vote on November 3rd. If you register in person, you will need to bring your proof of residence to register and a photo ID to vote. A tribal ID will work as well.

Request an Absentee Ballot
Once you are registered to vote, you can request an absentee ballot. This allows you to safely vote by mail so that you don’t have to wait in line at the polling station. The deadline to request an absentee ballot is October 29th at 5:00p.m. You can request your absentee ballot here: wcv.votewisconsin.com/absentee. You will need to upload a picture of your photo ID. We strongly encourage you to request your absentee ballot as soon as possible so that you receive it in time.

Everyone in Wisconsin needs to show a photo ID when they vote. This could be your WI Tribal ID card, WI driver’s license, WI state ID, or a passport. For a full list of acceptable photo IDs, visit our website: ConservationVoices.org/NativeVote.

Fill Out and Return Your Absentee Ballot
Once you fill out your absentee ballot, you will place it in the envelope provided. You will need to sign the envelope and write your address below your signature. You will also need a witness to sign the envelope and write their address on the envelope.

Absentee ballots must be received by Tue Nov 3, 2020 before 8:00PM. We encourage you to return your ballots as soon as possible. You can return your absentee ballot by mail, at an absentee ballot drop box if your clerk has designated one, or on the day of the election. If you are unsure of local rules, you can find your clerk’s office here: myvote.wi.gov/en-us/MyMunicipalClerk.

Vote in Person on Election Day
If you plan to vote in-person on the day of the election, you will need to bring a photo ID. You can use your tribal ID (even if it’s expired), driver’s license, military ID or U.S. Passport. You can find more information about valid ids at: https://bringit.wi.gov/do-i-have-right-photo-id. You can find your polling place here: myvote.wi.gov. Once you search for your home address at this link, you can find out the address and hours of your polling location. This polling location may be different from the polling location you attend when voting in tribal elections.

Questions?
If you have questions about voting or if someone you know needs an ID, please call the non-partisan helpline 608-285-2141 and trained volunteers will call you back. You can also visit the Wisconsin Native Vote web page for updated and detailed information: ConservationVoices.org/NativeVote.

We are working with Wisconsin Native Vote to ensure everyone in our community can vote. Thank you for your participation.

Boozhoo from the Behavioral Health Team!
We are excited to bring you news that you may find helpful. We hope to be able to provide information that you can use or share with others if you feel you are currently experiencing hard times, feeling down, or may not feel like you have anywhere to go.

Please use this newsletter as a resource for you to know you are NOT alone, and there are services that are here to help right in our own community!

During the month of September, we want the community to become more aware of the RC TREE Program!

September is Recovery Month!
Please join us as we celebrate the fact that Recovery is Possible!

Each September, Recovery Month works to promote and support new recovery treatments and practices, the emergence of a strong and proud recovery community, and the dedication of service providers and community members who make recovery in all its forms possible.

It has been said that the opposite of addiction is connection.
Experiencing the fellowship that happens during 12-Step Recovery meetings, and receiving Peer Support, connects you with others who understand where you are in your life, have been there themselves and can share their recovery stories to help and inspire you on your recovery journey.

Red Cliff Behavioral Health Department is dedicated to helping you in your recovery and can connect you to AODA & Behavioral Health services, Recovery Groups and Peer Support.
Please call 715-779-3741 for more information.
Red Cliff Pharmacy

We are continuing to offer curbside pickup for your convenience and safety during this pandemic.

We are requesting all pharmacy pick ups be curbside unless you are already coming into the clinic for another reason.

Please request your refills like you always have but call the pharmacy at 715-779-3157 and schedule a pickup day/time to let us know your vehicle model and color.

There are signs outside the front of the clinic indicating where to park after you have made us aware you will be here.

If you are receiving a new medication or have any questions at all a pharmacist would like to talk to you. Please call us at 715-779-3157 and ask for a pharmacist.

Please continue to wash your hands with soap and water for at least 20 seconds, disinfect hard surfaces in your home and “Stay Safer at Home”.

If you are quarantined or unable to make it to the clinic, please let us know and we will help you to get your medication safely.
Mental Health & Wellbeing

With the recent increase in COVID-19 cases, you may be feeling more anxiety and stress. Knowing healthy ways to cope with stress can be helpful in reducing these and may boost your emotional health. There are times you may feel the negative in your life outweighs the positive. These thoughts can lead to feelings of anxiety or depression. When these feelings are felt, stress may cause a person to feel overwhelmed and to retreat into a negative headspace. Next time you feel these intense feelings, consider trying one of the hyper-quick exercises provided, as the exercises encourage a person to take a moment to pause and relax before feelings begin to further escalate. The first exercise shows a technique that can be used to cool down when experiencing elevated emotions; while the second exercise encourages a person to not fixate on the negative and to instead try thinking in a more positive light.

Rate It – What’s your anxiety rating?

- Rate your anxiety from 1 to 10 – Give a score to the anxiety you are feeling, on a scale of 1 (lowest) to 10 (highest).
- Set a timer for 1 minute – For the next 60 seconds, allow yourself the opportunity to unwind and breathe. As you engage in this step, try to let the world pass by you.
- Remember, all things pass – Remind yourself that the sensations you feel from being overwhelmed, like a racing heart or a heated face will eventually come to pass. If it helps, say this phrase silently to yourself, “This too will pass”.
- Rate your anxiety again – After a minute, rate your anxiety again on a scale of 1 to 10 – has it gone down? Is there a difference, even by a half a point?
- Repeat if needed – Continue this exercise until your feelings of anxiety begin to dissipate, and you feel more comfortable to reengage with your day.

3 Good Things – What’s 3 good things you are grateful for?

- Think over your day so far – Let your mind reflect on the day you are having. Ask yourself questions like, “What did I do today?” and “Who have I spent time with?”
- Identify 3 good things – Try to come up with 3 moments that made you smile. Examples could include receiving a compliment, spending time on an activity you enjoy, or accomplishing a job. That’s one out of the three right there, can you think up two more?
- Make a note of them – Once you come up with your 3 good things, write them down. You can write this onto whatever item you’d like. This can include a journal, computer, or your phone.
- Enjoy the memories – Think about your 3 good things again, what about those things made you smile? Take this opportunity to also think back on those moments and enjoy them again by remembering them in detail.

If you or someone you know are having intense emotions, call Mishomis Wellness Center at 715-779-3741 to schedule an appointment with a mental health and/or substance abuse provider.

Red Cliff Food Shelf is open by appointment

The Red Cliff Food Shelf provides an assortment of food items to families in need.

Families may visit the Red Cliff Food Shelf once a month, receiving two to three days' worth of groceries.

This is meant to be emergency and supplemental food.

If you are interested in the Red Cliff Food Shelf, call the Red Cliff Family & Human Services office at 715-779-3706 and set up a time with one of our staff members (usually within 24 hours of call). Any of our staff here at the Family & Human Services office are willing to assist you and/or your family in this time of need.
Various Family and Human Services offerings have unique guidelines and hours in response to COVID-19.

See the Notices section toward the top of this newsletter for more information. You can also call the Family Human Services Division at 715-779-3706.

SOKAOGON CHIPPEWA COMMUNITY PARTNERING WITH ASTREA
TO BRING HIGH-SPEED INTERNET TO TRIBAL COMMUNITY RESIDENTS.

Sokaogon Chippewa Community Tribal leaders recently approved a partnership with Astrea to complete a Fiber to the Home (FTTH) construction project that will bring high-speed internet to community residents. Astrea, has started the first phases of the construction project and construction is anticipated to be completed later this year. Upon completion, Tribal residents will have the option of subscribing to high-speed internet, tv and phone services directly through Astrea.

“The Astrea team is grateful for the opportunity to partner with the Sokaogon Chippewa community on this effort,” says Cory Heigl, Vice President. “At Astrea, we believe that you shouldn't have to sacrifice connectivity based on where you live and this mission is further enhanced by this partnership. Providing this infrastructure, creates a connection lifeline for the Sokaogon Chippewa community to thrive. High-speed internet is vital for not only sustaining the Tribal community but aiding in its growth. We are humbled to partner in this effort.”

“This is great partnership for the Sokaogon Chippewa Community. We will now be able to provide high quality internet to nearly 200 households in the Mole Lake area. Families will no longer have to worry about connecting virtually for work or school.” - Jake Godin, SCC ICS Public Information Officer

During the construction phase, Astrea construction teams will be onsite performing the necessary work to complete the fiber build. With COVID related concerns, the construction team will be continually tested under the guidance of Tribal leadership and the SCC ICS Team to ensure that they are COVID-19 free while on Tribal land. In addition, community residents are asked to maintain a safe distance from the construction work and workers. Astrea personnel are not able to assist with connection repair from a current provider.

Following project completion, the nearly 200 Tribal properties will have access to Astrea services including unprecedented rural internet speed offering ranging from 50mbps up to 1G that will enable virtual work, healthcare and schooling. In addition, with a direct fiber connection to the home, residents will enjoy a dedicated connection experience that ensures speed consistency compared to other types of broadband connections. Astrea will provide direct sales & support of the services offered to Tribal residents. Further details on product packages and pricing will be announced as programming details are solidified.

Updates regarding the progress of the project will be sent out to community members on a regular basis and members are encouraged to check the Tribal website and social channels for updates.

About Astrea
Astrea, a division of CCI Systems, Inc., is headquartered in Iron Mountain, MI and is 100% employee owned. Astrea helps connect over 60 small communities, throughout Wisconsin & the Upper Peninsula of Michigan to family, healthcare, work, education, and entertainment by providing high-speed internet along with TV and Phone services. Astrea has worked on prior Tribal projects including building a FTTH project for the nearby Forest County Potawatomi Tribe.
