Appendix C

4. The owners of parcels of land which are smaller than 39 acres shall have a fractional Pinelands development credit at the same ratio established in paragraph 2. above.

5. Notwithstanding the provisions above, the owner of record of one-tenth or greater acres of land in the Agricultural Production and Agricultural Production/Light Industrial Zones as of February 7, 1979 shall be entitled to one-quarter Pinelands development credits, provided that the parcel of land is vacant and was not in common ownership with any contiguous land on or after February 7, 1979 and has not been sold or transferred except to a member of the owner's immediate family.

6. The provisions of paragraph 5 above shall also apply to owners of record of less than one-tenth acres of land in the Agricultural Production and Agricultural Production/Light Industrial Zones, as of February 7, 1979, provided that said owners acquire vacant, contiguous lands to which Pinelands development credits are allocated pursuant to paragraph 2 above which lands, when combined with the acreage of the parcel owned prior to February 7, 1979, total at least one-tenth of an acre.

m. Limitations on Use of Pinelands Development Credits:

1. No Pinelands development credit may be conveyed, sold, encumbered or transferred unless the owner of the land from which the credit has been obtained has received a Pinelands development credit certificate from the New Jersey Pinelands Development Credit Bank pursuant to N.J.A.C. 3:42-3 and has deed restricted the use of the land in perpetuity to those uses set forth in paragraph p. below by a recorded deed restriction which is in favor of a public agency or not-for-profit incorporated organization and specifically and expressly enforceable by the Pinelands Commission.

2. Notwithstanding the provision of paragraph 1. above, an owner of property from which Pinelands development credits are sold may retain a right for residential development on that property provided that the recorded deed restriction expressly provides for same and that the total allocation for Pinelands development credits for that property is reduced by one-quarter Pinelands development credit for each reserved right to build a dwelling unit. Subdivision of the property shall not be required until such time as the residential development right is exercised.

3. No development involving the use of Pinelands development credits shall be approved until the developer has provided the Commission and the township approval agency with evidence of his ownership and redemption of the requisite Pinelands development credits; provided, however, that the township approval agency may grant general development plan, preliminary subdivision or preliminary site plan approval conditioned upon such evidence being presented as
