On May 21 at 10:00 AM in the Stokes County Government Center (Board of Elections office), a sample audit of ballots from the 2024 second primary election will be held. The two voting sites, randomly selected by the State Board of Elections, to be audited are Flinty Knoll precinct and West King precinct. This sample audit is required by state law and compares the voting machine counts with hand-to-eye counts as a test to ensure the voting equipment read the voter's choices accurately. The contest to be audited is lieutenant governor.

Board meetings will take place in the Stokes County Government Center (in or near the Board of Elections office), unless otherwise noted. They are subject to change or cancellation. Additional meetings may be scheduled as needed. This document will be updated if necessary. Please contact the Board of Elections prior to a meeting for more information. The meeting schedule for July to December will be published at a later date.
