FOR A TRAVEL TRAILER / RECREATIONAL VEHICLE / MOTOR HOME / CAMPER TO BE USED AS A TEMPORARY RESIDENCE

Travel Trailers (also known as Recreational Vehicles, Campers, Motor Homes, etc.) are not permitted to be utilized as permanent dwellings, according to the North Carolina State Office of Fire Marshal and the North Carolina State Department of Insurance. Travel trailers can, however, be utilized as temporary dwellings under certain circumstances. This application is intended for those who are seeking to utilize a travel trailer on a temporary basis, and under specific circumstances. This approval only pertains to Planning and Zoning purposes as well. It is the responsibility of the applicant to verify that the proposed use is in compliance with all other applicable governmental agencies, including but not limited to, the Stokes County Building Inspections Department (336-593-2444) and the Stokes County Department of Environmental Health (336-593-2403).

Refer to the Stokes County Zoning Ordinance, specifically article 80.1.1 RECREATIONAL VEHICLE (RV) TEMPORARY STAY for further information.
